Driver Jailed As Auto Rams Vacant Store

2 Large Windows Smashed In Crash At Jefferson, 7th

A Glenmoor man was jailed Sunday night after his auto struck a parked car on Jefferson St. near W. 7th St., then leaped the curb and crashed into the front of a vacant storeroom, breaking two large plate glass windows, police reported.

He is John William Pilgrim, cited on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol following the mishap at 10:10 last night.

Police said Pilgrim's 1951 model car struck a parked 1953 auto owned by Stanley Wilson, 728 Avondale St., then hit the storeroom at 260 W. 7th St. owned by Mrs. Margaret Doughty, 1049 Avondale St. The corner storeroom formerly housed a pizza shop.

Patrolman Kent Garvey, who investigated, said Pilgrim apparently was driving north on Jefferson St. when he struck the Wilson car. There was damage to the entire front end of Pilgrim's car and the left rear and right

Cuban Exiles Form Unit To Fight Castro

GUATEMALA (AP) — A group of Cuban exiles here is organizing an army to seek the overthrow of Prime Minister Fidel Castro in Cuba. The organization, however, is still on paper and says it cannot mobilize unless it gets U.S. weapons.

The best available information is that no Cuban exiles are being trained here under arms at this time. Both Guatemalan and U.S. officials deny there is such activity. Guatemala was one of the training areas for the abortive invasion of Cuba last April.

The new organization is called the Army of Liberation of Cuba. Its chief is a former commander of the Cuban army, Gen. Jose E. Pedrazay Cabrera, 58.

These men—all Cubans—are now scattered throughout the continent waiting for the signal to unite and train as an invasion army, he said.

The army cannot be mobilized, however, without weapons from the United States, the spokesman said.

Hookstown Youth, 15, Hurt In Pistol Mishap

A 15-year-old Hookstown boy was treated at City Hospital Sunday at 3:25 p. m. after accidentally wounding himself with a .22 caliber pistol while target shooting.

James McLaughlin, 15, step-son of Harold Garner, had a bullet removed from the left middle finger. According to Hookstown and Georetown Police Chief Virgil Septer, to whom the accident was reported, McLaughlin was target shooting at the dump at the edge of Hookstown on the Georgetown Rd.

Septer said the boy was cocking the hammer when the gun slipped and went off. The accident happened about 2:30.

Hidden Bomb Fires

7 Nabbed In Raid At Kitty Kat Club

Agents from the Ohio Liquor Control Department raided the Kitty Kat Club on Route 7 near Steubenville early Sunday morning and arrested seven persons on charges of gambling and prostitution.

While the raid was in progress, an explosion apparently caused by a bomb planted in a rest room rocked the old roadhouse and caused more than $1,000 damage. No one was injured.

Agents said the south half of the tavern near Steubenville had been converted into an elaborate gambling parlor within the last 10 days and that prostitution was being conducted in the upstairs of the two-story frame building.

They said the operators of the gambling house "evidently had stepped on someone's toes and the bomb was used to get the message across that the operators were intruding in someone else's territory."

They said the bomb explosion, long associated as a weapon of the underworld, obviously was not meant to injure anyone.

Agents arrested George Stirpezski, also known as George Stirpe, 23, of Steubenville, on a charge of keeping a place for gambling purposes, and Benny Pandelli of Warren, accused of keeping a place for assignation and prostitution.

Arrested on charges of soliciting for prostitution were Tina Shell, 23, of Cleveland, and Rita Anderson, 22, of Canton.

Charged with loitering in a place of prostitution are Jackie Wilson, 27, of Cleveland, and Joan Kolby, 22, also of Cleveland.

The manager of the Kitty Kat Klub, David Bruno of Steubenville, was not cited personally. But the permit - holder of Kitty Kat Klub, Inc., was cited by agents for permitting prostitution and gambling.

The seven suspects were booked at the Jefferson County Jail in Steubenville Sunday morning and released on $500 bonds to await hearings this week before County Judge Helen M. Huntsman of Toronto.

The hearings were set for Thursday, but apparently will be changed to another date because of the holiday.

The raid was conducted by William A. Galayda, agent in charge, and three other agents from the Canton office of the Department of Liquor Control.

Two agents went upstairs and were admitted without difficulty by Pandelli and were solicited by the women, they said.

There were five women in each of five rooms, each with her health certificate pasted on a mirror certifying the holder did not have a communicable disease. The health certificates had been issued Feb. 10 and Feb. 14.

The agents said the well-equipped gambling room had a barbout table, roulette wheel with field cloth and balls, two croupier sticks, four dice, two dice cups, two money holders containing $100.95, a card table, three decks of playing cards, 2,000 chips used for card games and a money box for use at a card table.

The agents confiscated as much of the equipment as they could carry in their arms.

Bruno, the bartender, contended he knew nothing of the illegal activities being carried on elsewhere in the building. The agents said, however, that all activities are considered as being conducted on the premises of the permitholder.

According to state regulations, the permit holder must notify the Liquor Control Department of any changes made in construction of doorways or partitions. He failed to do, so, agents said.

Cabinet Report Waited

Peace With Algeria Seen As French Meetings End

PARIS (AP) — French officials said today that secret peace talks with the Algerian rebels had ended, heightening speculation that a cease-fire is imminent in the bloody North African rebellion.

President Charles de Gaulle's Algerian Affairs Minister Louis Joxe, who led the French government negotiators, returned to Paris to give a report.

Diplomatic observers said the French announcement saying the talks had ended almost certainly indicated that an agreement had been reached with the rebels. These observers said if the talks were going to be continued—or if they had broken down—the announcement normally would have said they had been suspended.

A French spokesman officially confirmed for the first time that the talks had taken place between Feb. 11 and 18 on French territory. The site of the crucial conservations was not reported, but it has frequently been speculated that they were held near the Swiss border.

The announcement said, "The conclusions. . .will be brought before the government."

The French Cabinet regularly meets on Wednesdays. It was not immediately known whether a special session would be held before Wednesday.

Joxe and two other French ministers met with rebel Vice Premier Belkacem Krim, Foreign Minister Saad Dahlab and two other Algerian rebel officials.

Talks Slated On U.S. Role In Viet Nam

McNamara States Belief In Progress Against Red Troops

HONOLULU (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara meets top military leaders here today for the third time in two months on United States involvement in Communist-beleaguered South Viet Nam.

Accompanied by 11 military and diplomatic officials, McNamara arrived Sunday night from Washington and repeated remarks made earlier that the South Viet Nam government appears to be making progress in the fight against Communist subversion and infiltration.

He declined specific comment when asked whether the United States was becoming directly involved in guerrilla warfare against the Viet Cong troops.

Before leaving Washington however, McNamara said that President Kennedy had made it quite clear that U.S. military personnel in South Viet Nam serve only in technical and advisory capacities, and discounted a suggestion that U.S. involvement might develop into another Korea.

President Kennedy said at a news conference last week that U.S. personnel in Viet Nam, although not combat troops, have been ordered to "fire back to protect themselves" if they are fired upon.

Since the defense secretary's last trip to Hawaii in January, the United States has attempted to coordinate its aid program to the goverment of President Ngo Dinh Diem. Gen. Paul D. Harkins, was recently appointed to head a new U.S. military assistance command in Saigon.

Some Republicans in recent weeks have charged that the Kennedy administration was minimizing direct U.S. involvement in South Viet Nam.

But McNamara said he felt that the campaign against the Communists was headed in the right direction.

"I think I can see increasing effectiveness of South Viet Nam's forces against the very savage Viet Cong troops," he said.

Hopes Rise For Glenn's Space Shot

Weather Brightens In Recovery Zone For Tuesday's Try

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —A brightening weather picture buoyed hopes today that astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. will be launched toward a round-the-earth orbit Tuesday after months of delays.

At a morning briefing, Project Mercury officials reported "generally improved conditions" in the Atlantic recovery areas where Marine Lt. Col. Glenn's capsule would descend.

The first half of a split two-day countdown was started at 2:30 a.m. The precount was finished at 6 a.m., with both the Atlas booster rocket and Friendship 7 spacecraft described as in "go" condition.

Officials were shooting for a launch between 7:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The weather outlook in the Cape Canaveral vicinity gave officials some concern. A cold front preceded by a squall line was advancing into northern Florida this morning. This could leave lingering cloudiness in the cape area, possibly delaying the shot for the 11th time.

However, officials were hopeful holes could be found in the clouds through which the rocket could be fired.

A complete check of the weather was due for about midnight tonight, after which officials were to make a preliminary decision.

"We feel a lot more optimistic today than we did yesterday," said Lt. Col. John A. Powers, spokesman for the astronauts.

Toll Hits 252 In European Flood Areas

HAMBURG, Germany (AP) — Strong winds were forecast again today for the flood-stricken North Sea coast where the toll of dead and missing mounted to 252, but authorities said there was no immediate new threat.

Flags were at half-staff as the area went into mourning for victims of Friday's wind-whipped floods that wreaked damage running into hundreds of millions of dollars.

Officials said it would take several days to get a complete casualty list of the toll taken by the waters that slowly receded leaving the area looking like a battlefield.

The search was stepped up as several special units were brought in to comb the flood areas. More than 100 helicopters, including an American unit, were to continue supply and evacuation missions.

Tens of thousands of persons spent their third night in flood-surrounded houses. Authorities said none of those trapped was in danger, however.

But supplies were running low and drinking water was rationed in some areas. Many houses were without electricity or heat as power failures continued.

In Hamburg alone, 107 bodies had been recovered by midnight Sunday. At least another 109 were reported missing and believed dead in the stricken city.

Strike, Riots End

Reprisals Feared In Tense Guiana

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP)—An uncertain peace settled on this tropical capital today after a siege of rioting, looting and burning. Labor leaders called off their general strike against leftist Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan, but his East Indian followers were reported plotting reprisals in the hinterlands.

British armed forces, hurriedly flown from Jamaica and London on appeal from Jagan, were braced for trouble, although fire-blackened Georgetown was quiet.

Jagan, an East Indian himself, gets most of his support from East Indian farmers and workers outside Georgetown. Negroes generally support Forbes Burnham, leader of the People's National Congress party, whom Jagan defeated in last August's election.

Tensions relaxed somewhat Sunday night, with the announcement of labor leaders that they had called off their week-long strike.

The back-to-work call came after the union leaders met three and a half hours with Jagan. One negotiator said Jagan agreed to a series of demands.

A terse radio announcement said the unions, grouping civil servants, government employes and primary schoolteachers, had asked them to return to work with the Trade Union Council also recommending its 12,000 strikers to resume work.

Civil servants and teachers struck for higher wages. The Trades Union Council protested Jagan's plans for higher import taxes and a compulsory savings scheme which the council claimed hurt workers more than the rich.

A Trades Union Council announcement said Jagan promised to impose price controls to prevent importers from passing on duties to consumers and to consider the replacement of the compulsory savings program with a voluntary savings scheme.

Observers said, however, the strike basically was against the leftist leanings of Jagan.

Kennedy Asks Bill To Curb Future Slump

Congress Handed Public Works Plan To Aid Recessions

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today sent to Congress legislation to give him power to trigger up to $2 billion of public works projects in the early stage of any business slump.

In an accompanying letter Kennedy said the standby authority would be "an invaluable anti-recession tool."

It would permit a speedup of authorized federal projects and provide grant and loan funds for the states to activate their own high-priority improvements, Kennedy said, without the necessity of waiting for congressional action which "may be too late."

The standby plan, part of the three-point program urged by Kennedy in his economic message Jan. 22, has been hailed by most Democrats but attacked by Re-

In brief comments to newsmen after the meeting in Sarit's office, Kennedy said, "We are hoping—Thailand and the United States—that the matter can be resolved in Laos in a satisfactory manner. We are both in accord on efforts being made" (to reach a settlement).

Arizona Senator Marks 5 Decades In Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Carl Hayden, who swapped his Western sheriff's badge for a seat in Congress five days after Arizona became a state, today becomes the first man to serve as a member of Congress for 50 years.

The 84-year-old Democrat, third in line of succession to the presidency, was sworn into the House of Representatives Feb. 19, 1912. After 15 years as Arizona's only representative in the House, Hayden moved to the Senate in 1927.

Today he is dean of the Senate and the Congress. However, he is little known outside Washington because he resolutely shuns publicity and rarely speaks in public.

Hayden was asked in a recent interview to name his greatest accomplishment.

"I just can't do it," he said. "A man does one piece of work one time, another piece of work, and then another. To look back 50 years and say one thing is more important than another is something I can't do."

Hayden, an expected candidate this year for his seventh six-year Senate term, attributes his Congressional contribution to Western development to "a theory I had when Arizona was still a territory."

"When I got here, the territory had just become a state and it had many problems and needs," he said. "I asked for committees that could be most helpful in that regard, and I got them because there was little demand from others for them."

West Sends Flights To Rebuff Reds

Transports Move Along North Route Despite Pressures

BERLIN (AP)—Allied aircraft flew through the north corridor from Berlin today to counter renewed Soviet pressure on the vital air lanes, informed sources said.

Military and commercial transports thrust through the Berlin-Hamburg corridor over Communist East German territory, the informants said.

Western commanders gave orders for the transports to fly deliberately below the level the Soviets want for their exclusive use for a three-hour period.

For the seventh time since it started harassing Western air links to Berlin on Feb. 7, the Soviet air force told the Berlin Air Safety Center Sunday night it was reserving air space up to 7,500 feet in the north corridor leading to Berlin from Hamburg.

Allied control officers rejected the Soviet flight plan and ordered military transports to stand by.

The Soviet move came after a weekend pause in the Berlin air crisis. Sunday morning, Moscow announced it had rejected a three-power protest that maneuvers of the Red air force in the corridors were dangerous and illegal.

The Allies insist that air safety rules, in force for 17 years, require notification of each individual flight through the three 20-mile wide corridors linking Berlin with Frankfurt, Hannover and Hamburg.

The Western powers charged the Russians were trying to change the rules by making "block bookings" for the Red air force. The Allies do not dispute Soviet contentions the Red air force has equal rights in the corridors but they insist on carrying out the safety rules.

The Allies complained to the Kremlin that Soviet jet fighters buzzed Western aircraft in the corridors last week.

Man To Face Charges For 3 Road Deaths

A Beaver County coroner's jury Saturday held William Adams Best, 76, of Beaver Falls, responsible in the deaths of School Supt. and Mrs. Seward E. Daw and Mrs. Lyda M. Rowen, all of Wellsville, as a result of an auto accident Nov. 26 in Beaver County.

Dr. John W. Colavincenzo, county coroner, reported that the Best case will go to the Grand Jury in March.

George H. Rowen, owner of the Rowen Oil Co. and only survivor in Daw's car, was present at the inquest held at the coroner's office at the Beaver County Home and Annex at Beaver.

Mrs. Bessie M. Daw, 72, of 1001 Main St., and Mrs. Rowen, 65, of 930 Main St., died instantly in the accident and Dr. Daw, died Dec. 8, of his injuries. Rowen, the fourth occupant, recovered from his injuries.

The mishap occurred when Best pulled out of an intersection on Route 251, four miles west of Beaver Falls, and struck the Daw car, sending it careening into a tree.

Labor leaders called off their general strike against leftist Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan, but his East Indian followers were reported plotting reprisals in the hinterlands.

British armed forces, hurriedly flown from Jamaica and London on appeal from Jagan, were braced for trouble, although fire-blackened Georgetown was quiet.

Jagan, an East Indian himself, gets most of his support from East Indian farmers and workers outside Georgetown. Negroes generally support Forbes Burnham, leader of the People's National Congress party, whom Jagan defeated in last August's election.

Tensions relaxed somewhat Sunday night, with the announcement of labor leaders that they had called off their week-long strike.

The back-to-work call came after the union leaders met three and a half hours with Jagan. One negotiator said Jagan agreed to a series of demands.

A terse radio announcement said the unions, grouping civil servants, government employes and primary schoolteachers, had asked them to return to work with the Trade Union Council also recommending its 12,000 strikers to resume work.

Civil servants and teachers struck for higher wages. The Trades Union Council protested Jagan's plans for higher import taxes and a compulsory savings scheme which the council claimed hurt workers more than the rich.

A Trades Union Council announcement said Jagan promised to impose price controls to prevent importers from passing on duties to consumers and to consider the replacement of the compulsory savings program with a voluntary savings scheme.

Observers said, however, the strike basically was against the leftist leanings of Jagan.

Kennedy Asks Bill To Curb Future Slump

Congress Handed Public Works Plan To Aid Recessions

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today sent to Congress legislation to give him power to trigger up to $2 billion of public works projects in the early stage of any business slump.

In an accompanying letter Kennedy said the standby authority would be "an invaluable anti-recession tool."

It would permit a speedup of authorized federal projects and provide grant and loan funds for the states to activate their own high-priority improvements, Kennedy said, without the necessity of waiting for congressional action which "may be too late."

The standby plan, part of the three-point program urged by Kennedy in his economic message Jan. 22, has been hailed by most Democrats but attacked by Re-

Support Seen In Thailand On Laos Plan

U.S. Proposal Gets Backing According To Robert Kennedy

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Thailand and the United States are "in accord" on efforts to settle the Laos crisis peacefully, U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said today.

In brief comments to newsmen after the meeting in Sarit's office, Kennedy said, "We are hoping—Thailand and the United States—that the matter can be resolved in Laos in a satisfactory manner. We are both in accord on efforts being made" (to reach a settlement).

He declined, however, to be

Arizona Senator Marks 5 Decades In Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Carl Hayden, who swapped his Western sheriff's badge for a seat in Congress five days after Arizona became a state, today becomes the first man to serve as a member of Congress for 50 years.

The 84-year-old Democrat, third in line of succession to the presidency, was sworn into the House of Representatives Feb. 19, 1912. After 15 years as Arizona's only representative in the House, Hayden moved to the Senate in 1927.

Today he is dean of the Senate and the Congress. However, he is little known outside Washington because he resolutely shuns publicity and rarely speaks in public.

Hayden was asked in a recent interview to name his greatest accomplishment.

"I just can't do it," he said. "A man does one piece of work one time, another piece of work, and then another. To look back 50 years and say one thing is more important than another is something I can't do."

Hayden, an expected candidate this year for his seventh six-year Senate term, attributes his Congressional contribution to Western development to "a theory I had when Arizona was still a territory."

"When I got here, the territory had just become a state and it had many problems and needs," he said. "I asked for committees that could be most helpful in that regard, and I got them because there was little demand from others for them."

West Sends Flights To Rebuff Reds

Transports Move Along North Route Despite Pressures

BERLIN (AP)—Allied aircraft flew through the north corridor from Berlin today to counter renewed Soviet pressure on the vital air lanes, informed sources said.

Military and commercial transports thrust through the Berlin-Hamburg corridor over Communist East German territory, the informants said.

Western commanders gave orders for the transports to fly deliberately below the level the Soviets want for their exclusive use for a three-hour period.

For the seventh time since it started harassing Western air links to Berlin on Feb. 7, the Soviet air force told the Berlin Air Safety Center Sunday night it was reserving air space up to 7,500 feet in the north corridor leading to Berlin from Hamburg.

Allied control officers rejected the Soviet flight plan and ordered military transports to stand by.

The Soviet move came after a weekend pause in the Berlin air crisis. Sunday morning, Moscow announced it had rejected a three-power protest that maneuvers of the Red air force in the corridors were dangerous and illegal.

The Allies insist that air safety rules, in force for 17 years, require notification of each individual flight through the three 20-mile wide corridors linking Berlin with Frankfurt, Hannover and Hamburg.

The Western powers charged the Russians were trying to change the rules by making "block bookings" for the Red air force. The Allies do not dispute Soviet contentions the Red air force has equal rights in the corridors but they insist on carrying out the safety rules.

The Allies complained to the Kremlin that Soviet jet fighters buzzed Western aircraft in the corridors last week.

Man To Face Charges For 3 Road Deaths

A Beaver County coroner's jury Saturday held William Adams Best, 76, of Beaver Falls, responsible in the deaths of School Supt. and Mrs. Seward E. Daw and Mrs. Lyda M. Rowen, all of Wellsville, as a result of an auto accident Nov. 26 in Beaver County.

Dr. John W. Colavincenzo, county coroner, reported that the Best case will go to the Grand Jury in March.

George H. Rowen, owner of the Rowen Oil Co. and only survivor in Daw's car, was present at the inquest held at the coroner's office at the Beaver County Home and Annex at Beaver.

Mrs. Bessie M. Daw, 72, of 1001 Main St., and Mrs. Rowen, 65, of 930 Main St., died instantly in the accident and Dr. Daw, died Dec. 8, of his injuries. Rowen, the fourth occupant, recovered from his injuries.

The mishap occurred when Best pulled out of an intersection on Route 251, four miles west of Beaver Falls, and struck the Daw car, sending it careening into a tree.

Court Begins Case Against City Motorist

A hearing was underway in Municipal Court this morning for a city motorist arrested in two charges Jan. 31 by sheriff's deputies.

The hearing for Clifford Clutter, 423 McKee St., accused of driving while under the influence of alcohol and operating an auto after his driver's license had been suspended, started before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff with Deputy Sheriff Herman (Cy) Wellman as the first witness.

Wellman testified to events leading up to Clutter's arrest on McKee St., relating how they followed him on Dresden Ave., where his driving was erratic.

The officer said Clutter drove across the center line on several occasions and forced at least one tractor-trailer to go up over the curb to get out of his path.

He said Clutter admitted he had been drinking, was staggering and admitted he didn't have a license. Under further questioning, Clutter said his license was lifted by the state in 1958 for drunken driving, Wellman testified.

Deputy Ronald Gause, who was driving the sheriff's cruiser, followed him to the witness stand.

Meanwhile, an East End motorist was granted a continuance until 9 a. m. Wednesday to obtain counsel after being arraigned on a charge of reckless driving filed by Patrolman Paul Carter.

LeRoy Black, 2314 Harvey Ave., asked the delay to obtain counsel. His bond was set at $57.50.

The affidavit alleges Black drove east on the River Rd. Feb. 15 at a speed of 55 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone, passed another vehicle at the intersection of St. George and Mulberry Sts., crashed a stop sign at St. George St. and Virginia Ave., made a left turn onto Virginia Ave. and then turned from Virginia onto Elmwood St. at a high rate of speed.

Albert W. Ayers of Colliers, W. Va., was fined $10 and costs by Judge Chertoff on a charge of crashing a traffic signal at W. 8th and Lisbon Sts. at 4:27 a. m. Saturday. He pleaded guilty.

Elmer J. Merchant, 305 W. 4th St., is due for a hearing Friday at 9 a. m. on a charge of speeding 90 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. Merchant was cited Saturday at 9:15 p. m. by the State Highway Patrol.

Tragedy Strikes Twice

Wellsville Man And Son Taken On Same Weekend

Death came over the weekend to a Wellsville father and son.

They were Emerson W. Kessel, 901 Center St., the son, who died Saturday night at the Oakland Veterans Hospital in Pittsburgh, and the father, Oscar B. Kessel, 333 Ridge Ave., who was claimed early Sunday at City Hospital.

Oscar B. Kessel

Oscar Bliss Kessel, 333 Ridge Ave., Wellsville, city health officer since 1957, died Sunday at 2:10 a. m. at City Hospital. He was 76.

Mr. Kessel had been a patient at the hospital since Feb. 6 following an accident on 3rd St., Wellsville, where he had been struck by an auto as he was returning to his home.

He was born at Cottageville, W. Va., May 5, 1885, son of the late Houston E. Kessel and Rachael Barber Kessel. He came to Wellsville 55 years ago. He was employed for 27 years in the former Wellsville Works of the American Sheet & Tin Plate Co., until it closed in 1933. After the State Park was established in the East End of Wellsville, he was custodian for 18 years.

He was elected to three terms as councilman in the First Ward and had been appointed health officer by former Mayor William Shoub, the position which he had since held. His wife, Mrs. Maud French Kessel, died Feb. 8, 1943.

He leaves three sons, Herman R. Kessel at home; James H. Kessel of Highlandtown and Robert B. Kessel of Lisbon; two brothers, Roscoe L. Kessel of Sun City, Ariz., and Herman Kessel of Parkersburg, W. Va.; four sisters, Mrs. Lenore Anderson, Mrs. Louise Bernhardt, Mrs. Gladys Taylor and Mrs. Doris Samuels, all of Parkersburg, and six grandchildren. A son, Emerson W. Kessell, died Saturday.

Graduated from Wellsville High School in 1932, he was employed in the cold strip department of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co. for many years before retiring in April 1961 due to illness.

He was an Army technican fourth grade, serving over two years in the Asiatic and Pacific Areas. He was a member of the Central Methodist Church, American Legion Post 70, Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 5647 and Elks Lodge 1040, all of Wellsville.

Court Begins Case Against City Motorist

A hearing was underway in Municipal Court this morning for a city motorist arrested in two charges Jan. 31 by sheriff's deputies.

The hearing for Clifford Clutter, 423 McKee St., accused of driving while under the influence of alcohol and operating an auto after his driver's license had been suspended, started before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff with Deputy Sheriff Herman (Cy) Wellman as the first witness.

Wellman testified to events leading up to Clutter's arrest on McKee St., relating how they followed him on Dresden Ave., where his driving was erratic.

The officer said Clutter drove across the center line on several occasions and forced at least one tractor-trailer to go up over the curb to get out of his path.

He said Clutter admitted he had been drinking, was staggering and admitted he didn't have a license. Under further questioning, Clutter said his license was lifted by the state in 1958 for drunken driving, Wellman testified.

Deputy Ronald Gause, who was driving the sheriff's cruiser, followed him to the witness stand.

Meanwhile, an East End motorist was granted a continuance until 9 a. m. Wednesday to obtain counsel after being arraigned on a charge of reckless driving filed by Patrolman Paul Carter.

LeRoy Black, 2314 Harvey Ave., asked the delay to obtain counsel. His bond was set at $57.50.

The affidavit alleges Black drove east on the River Rd. Feb. 15 at a speed of 55 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone, passed another vehicle at the intersection of St. George and Mulberry Sts., crashed a stop sign at St. George St. and Virginia Ave., made a left turn onto Virginia Ave. and then turned from Virginia onto Elmwood St. at a high rate of speed.

Albert W. Ayers of Colliers, W. Va., was fined $10 and costs by Judge Chertoff on a charge of crashing a traffic signal at W. 8th and Lisbon Sts. at 4:27 a. m. Saturday. He pleaded guilty.

Elmer J. Merchant, 305 W. 4th St., is due for a hearing Friday at 9 a. m. on a charge of speeding 90 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. Merchant was cited Saturday at 9:15 p. m. by the State Highway Patrol.

Some Facts And Figures On The Tax

Time and again when the city income tax is discussed this question is heard: "What did they do with all the money that already has been collected?"

It's a natural question and a logical one. But, contrary to many mistaken beliefs, the answer has been presented on several occasions, the latest being Saturday when Mayor Goodballet released some facts and figures relative to the tax.

For those who may have missed the latest accounting in The Review, the figures offered by the mayor are presented again. His report on the 1961 income and expenditures in the tax fund covers all the receipts and disbursements up to Dec. 31.

IT SHOWS disbursements of $40,924.89, transfers of $67,336.32 and a cash balance of $14,853.63. Added together, the three figures equal the tax collections of $123,114.84 listed through Dec. 31.

Included in the disbursements are five items of expenses incurred in the tax office operations. They are: Salaries, $11,729.17; printing forms and supplies, $4,429.27; incidentals, $2,111.60; equipment renovation and office alterations, $689.60, and consultant's contract, $6,300.

Also listed under disbursements are: Road oil purchase, $4,783.80; St. Clair Ave. improvement fund, $10,206, and interest on notes, $675.45.

The road oil was purchased for a citywide project for treating unsurfaced streets to keep down the dust in the summertime. The disbursement to the St. Clair Ave. fund represents money paid out for planning a new roadway on the stretch from Jennings Ave. to the city limits, for which the federal government has agreed to pay 50 per cent of the cost.

THE ITEM for interest on notes came about because the city borrowed money for pressing needs against the anticipated needs from the tax, then retired the notes out of part of the revenue. The alternative would have been to wait several months until the tax receipts built up.

The transfers, totaling $67,336.32, were: To general fund, $53,883.83; to street department fund, $6,700; to swimming pool fund, $1,500, and to bond retirement fund, $5,252.49.

The transfers mean that part of the income tax revenue were used to bolster the city's normal operating receipts. For instance, the general fund foots the bill for all the city offices as well as the fire and police departments, and others.

Last Of Her Kind?

The excursion steamer Avalon apparently has made her last run.

Her owners have filed a bankruptcy petition in Federal Court at Cincinnati and the Cincinnati City Council is considering purchase of the boat as a centerpiece for a waterfront development.

The passing of the Avalon from the scene could mean the end of the excursion trade in the Upper Ohio Valley. Many East Liverpool residents must feel like shedding a nostalgic tear at word of the stern-wheeler's plight.

Excursion boats have played a colorful part in the district's history and the Avalon and the others before her always could be counted on to add a spice of excitement and glamour to the daily routine.

No One Thinks About Charley

All of us have been impressed by the reports that negotiators for the steel industry are buckling down to work in a business-like manner.

Their work is cut out for them.

Spokesmen for the union must get higher wages, wider fringe benefits and more job security. Spokesmen for management must get a labor contract that will enable the steel industry to stay in business on the best competitive terms possible.

Both labor and management are charged with responsibility by the Kennedy administration, moreover, for bringing about a miracle of reconciling the seemingly irreconcilable in a non-inflationary manner.

It will be a good trick if they can do it, and they will do the best they can.

But in this negotiation as in every large-scale negotiation there is something missing. No one bargains in behalf of the consumer.

IT NEVER IS mentioned that mass consumption is the other side of mass production and that the classical formula which made the United States the first shining example of what could be done with modern industrialism was to pass along the fruits of efficiency in three dishes.

One dish was for employers, who were rewarded with more profit by selling an ever-increasing total of units.

One dish was for labor, rewarded with higher rates and more jobs by working ever more efficiently to make mass production possible.

The third dish was for the mass consumer, who was encouraged to raise his standard of living by being allowed to share in the savings from the ever-increasing efficiency of mass production.

But today, though everybody talks about efficiency, especially the efficiency of the new automated processes breaking out here, there and everywhere, no one ever talks about passing along any of the savings to consumers.

THE SAVINGS are claimed by unions. They are guarded by management. They are eyed by tax collectors. They are tapped by philanthropic endeavors. But how long has it been since someone made news by announcing an across-the-board saving for the consumers of the United States?

A consumer who thinks he should be entitled to a share of the good things, along with the members of labor unions and the stockholders, is told that he is lucky if the price of what he is supposed to buy doesn't go up — and if it does go up he's lucky it didn't go up even more.

Take a bow, Charley Consumer. You are the forgotten man.

Put Honesty Into The Hopper

The Kennedy administration wants to clear the track for drastic tariff reductions.

Its argument is that the United States must do business freely with the new European Economic Community or find itself on the outside looking in.

In the foreseeable future, say our tariff reducers, the United States must pare down its protection to stimulate trade with potential customers everywhere — in Asia as well as Europe.

The only way potential customers can buy more U.S. goods, runs the argument, is to sell more goods here. We must open the wealthy U.S. market to producers here, there and everywhere. If foreign competition hurts U.S. producers they must grin and bear it. If they are forced out of business, the government will try to help them struggle out of their joblessness and bankruptcy.

It's a thin promise.

We suggest that the Kennedy administration could beef it up by putting a proviso about honesty into the legislative hopper.

The proviso would say that all imported goods shall be inspected by the U.S. government to determine if they are what they purport to be.

The proviso would say the principle of fair trade shall be applied as rigorously to imported merchandise as it is to domestic goods.

It would say trade-marks cannot be copied willy-nilly and that things should be what they appear to be; i.e. if they appear to be made in the U.S.A., they should be made in the U.S.A., not in Lower Slobovia.

In some situations it might be necessary to let the potential U.S. buyer know what the standard of comparison would be in terms he is familiar with, such as making all imported hand tools bear acknowledgment of the fact they will not meet standards set by U.S. tools, if that is the case.

These are important provisos — important because they concern customers. U.S. manufacturers and their employes have enough trouble in prospect with foreign competition. They have a right to be protected against foreign misrepresentation while they fight for their lives.

Their protection should be spelled out in law.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

New York has a new proposal to end theater ticket "scalping." Feature is suggestion that box office be allowed to charge "all traffic will bear" above regular price on opening nights. This changes "orchestra circle" to "Go For Broke Section." (There should be a ninth row for customers' lawyers in case show is a flop and they want to sue immediately for money back.)

Producer of a regular $8 ticket show could double price for premiere, the difference to go for costs of getting play to Broadway. In case of a flop this would be "turkey" insurance.

Main idea, however, is to keep the extra money in the theater instead of outside among certified "scalpers." Cash customer gets sandbagged by the theater instead of by a stranger. He obtains his overcharge direct, and with positively no waiting.

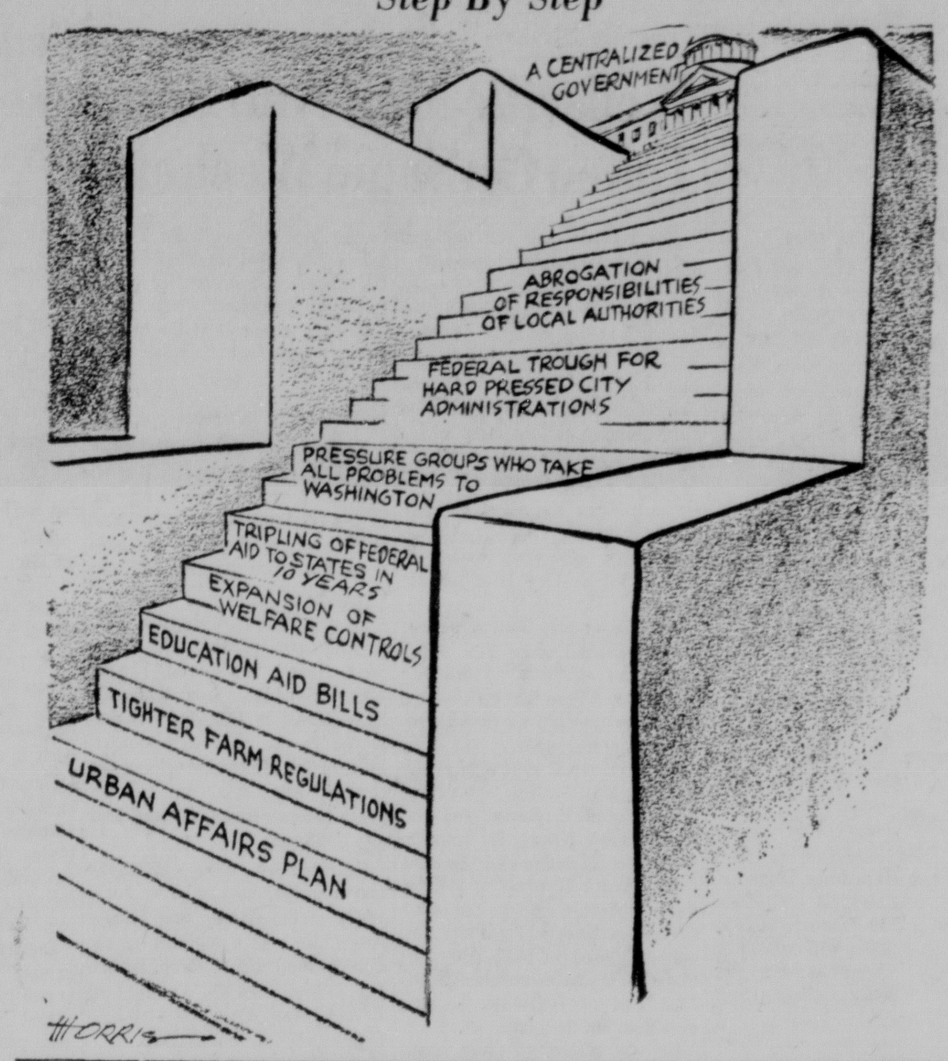
It's really Broadway Plan No. 4632. First war on ticket brokers, etc., came while Indians were just leaving Manhattan Island. Second, third and fourth campaigns came during Madison administration. Custer's last Fight and period extending from Spanish-American War and Lillian Russell, through prohibition and "hobbled skirt must go" period. Despite all such crusades it costs more today than ever to get a seat to a hit show.

If the "First Eight Rows for Heavy Spenders" is adopted for first nights, buyers should get trading stamps, in case of flops. If he gets enough stamps through "turkeys" he should be entitled to a free matinee seat to a revival of "The Student Prince."

Only two states in the U. S. — New York and Massachusetts — have laws for compulsory automobile insurance. In fact, the U. S. is one of the very few western nations which do not require accident insurance of every car owner.

The record for the first transcontinental airplane flight was made in 1911 by Robert G. Fowler. It required 35 days between Florida and California.

Step By Step



Prescription For The Republicans

By Raymond Moley

Republicans have completed their series of Lincoln Day speeches, and they can now go back to their drawing boards. The verbal explosions were of a very low yield and the fallout slight along the Eastern Seaboard where Sen. Jacob K. Javits grumbled in New York City with Gov. John A. Volpe of Massachusetts and Sen. Margaret Chase Smith was heard from in Bangor, Me.

They spoke of party division rather than party unity, of what Republicans should do rather than the basic questions of just how to get into a position to implement any program.

They raked their party, leaving their party's opponent relatively unscathed. Theirs was a weary recital of precisely what Democrats might have ghosted for them.

Javits claimed that the party was "paying too much attention to the 'thunder on the right' and not enough to the 'thunder in the cities.'"

FROM MAINE, Sen. Margaret Chase Smith indulged in attacks on Republicans who would not declare their candidacy for 1964, on GOP faintheartedness and defeatism. She even launched into a consideration of 1968.

Sen. Javits, in particular, resembled a man watering his rose bushes while his house burns. After all, with a big Democratic majority in Congress, with committee chairmen all Democrats, and a Democratic President constantly sending messages to the Hill and bringing enormous political pressure to bear for liberal measures, the function of the Republican party must, in our two-party system, be that of the opposition.

The Republican party, like the defensive platoon on Sunday afternoon, does not call plays for the offense. It does not propose, for it does not have the ball. Chaining loyal opposition to negativism does Javits' party a grave disservice.

Fundamental differences do exist between a great majority of Republicans and the majority of Democrats in Congress. This is revealed by a most comprehensive study of voting on 115 roll calls in the Senate and 40 in the House of Representatives by a highly reliable private research agency.

THE VOTING considered involved domestic issues only—government intervention in the private economy, spending and fiscal responsibility, bureaucratic growth and centralization of federal power and labor relations.

How did Sen. Javits measure up to the great majority of his party's members in the Senate? On domestic conservatism he voted 80 times with the overwhelming majority of the Democrats. His record is a 27-per-cent average of what most members of his party supported.

Senators Keating and Smith rate 58 and 61 per cent respectively.

In his Lincoln Day dinner remarks, Javits asserted that President Kennedy had "failed to redeem his campaign pledges on civil rights . . . to denounce or request action to modernize our unjust and discriminatory immigration laws . . . to obtain support within his own party for a critically needed program of medical care for the aging."

He also attacked the President for bungling "the leadership on federal aid to education." Of course, these matters involve Javits' avid desire for even greater federal centralism.

It is difficult for Republicans to take seriously the ideological advice of a man who has firmly identified himself with the most liberal wing of the Democratic party. Javits' 27-per-cent is approached by only one other Republical Sen., Clifford Case of New Jersey with 29-per-cent.

THE TREND in the new members of the House of Representatives shows that in most cases they have responsible conservative voting records. Surely they would say that they are representing their constituents' best interests and would hardly agree with Javits that what is good for New York City is good for the rest of the country.

There are many indications that people around the country are becoming more and more wary toward federal centralism. Many of these new Republican representatives have learned that a frail bridge of words, resembling what the liberal Democrats have advocated, is no substitute for a sound, reinforced structure of organization.

Lincoln Day dinner speakers might better have taken a prescription from Abraham Lincoln's wisdom about party success: "The whole state must be so well organized that every Whig can be brought to the polls. So divide the country into small districts and appoint in each a committee. Make a perfect list of the voters and ascertain with certainty for whom they will vote. . . . Keep a constant watch on the doubtful voters and have them talked to by those in whom they have the most confidence. . . .On election days see that every Whig is brought to the polls."

Public Uncertain Of Political Motives

Mass meetings to espouse a cause are not only legitimate as an expression of the free speech idea in America, but they give a chance to publicize movements that sometimes have a hard time getting attention.

Last autumn, the Young Americans for Freedom started planning for a rally to be held on March 7 in Madison Square Garden in New York City. It was planned as a manifestation of the interest of the younger generation in the cause of anti-Communism but lately it has been getting some unfavorable publicity because some of the persons designated to receive awards have not accepted the invitations.

As with some other new organizations venturing into the domain of public rallies, mistakes have been made in the planning of such events. In the first place, only one Democrat and several Republicans in Congress were invited to speak. This caused Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., to withdraw his acceptance. He said: "I regard the anti-Communist cause as one which, if it is to succeed, must function as a bipartisan movement which is neither dominated by nor identified with any political party or any political faction. . . .

"When I received your initial invitation, I had the expectation that the award presentation was to be a nonpartisan meeting for the purpose of honoring a diverse group of Americans for contributions to freedom and anti-Communism."

Then Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., who had also been invited to speak, wrote that it would be politically embarrassing for him to be there. He said this was because Gen. Edwin A. Walker—who had been announced as a speaker — is a candidate in the Democratic primary for governor of Texas. So the invitation to the general was withdrawn.

Another unfortunate episode occurred. The organization invited Moise Tshombe, the leader of the secessionist movement in the Congo, to appear and receive a citation but the Congolese leader hasn't been able to get a visa from the U.S. Department of State for his passport.

The State Department said that a visit by Tshombe at this time would "interrupt and jeopardize" efforts to unify the Congo.

WHERE THE PLANNERS of the mass meeting of the "Young Americans for Freedom" made their error was in combining a controversial rally in behalf of Tshombe with an award-giving ceremony to Americans, among them persons prominent in party politics.

Those invited to accept awards may look askance at possible misinterpretations that could ensue from their presence at such ceremonies.

This writer, for example, doesn't participate in rallies of this kind and about two months ago declined an invitation to accept an award at the Madison Square Garden meeting of March 7. Although he had never authorized the use of his name, it appeared by mistake on the literature first announcing the rally.

Conservative organizations have sprung up in various parts of the country. Some are conscientiously trying to promote worthy causes. There have been organizations on the conservative and on the radical sides which have done effective work for their causes on college campuses. Others, however, have hurt a cause by their unfounded and slanderous statements.

The John Birch Society, for instance, might have made more headway had not its leader attacked men like Gen. Eisenhower as allegedly being pro-Communist.

THERE'S ANOTHER organization out West which in recent months has kept up a letter campaign against the Council on Foreign Relations in New York City. The cry is that the latter association has Communist leanings.

This is an absurd charge. The council is an organization of 1,800 members who meet privately as a seminar group and listen periodically to lectures from prominent persons in the field of foreign affairs. Secretaries of state, other government officials and prominent visitors from abroad have been among its many speakers.

This writer has answered scores of letters from readers who have been misled by such propaganda, and has defended the council on foreign relations.

A vast amount of literature on public affairs has been circulated by various organizations in recent months — ranging in subject matter all the way from partisan politics to attacks on religious denominations.

Perhaps the persons who have engaged in this kind of warfare have themselves been misled either by impassioned lecturers or through leaflets of an irresponsible kind.

It is, therefore, very important that "cause" groups — which do come out in the open and number among their sponsors people in positions of responsibility in business, the professions or in the educational world, whether they be conservative or radical—should be especially careful to disclose fully their basic purposes and personnel.

The public often cannot judge the merits of a movement just by its name — the people can have confidence in an organization as a rule only when they recognize the names of sponsors whose characters and positions in public affairs are known to them.

Kremlinology Reviewed

By Marguerite Higgins

Since the last Soviet winter spectacular in the good will field (the release of the RB47 pilots) was followed by a spring, summer, and fall of ultimatums, rocket rattling and nuclear explosions in the 100-magaton range, it is clear that the local Kremlinologists, far from being killjoys, are being merely prudent in cautioning that the release of U2 pilot Powers is a welcome but not necessarily significant cold war development.

And in any case, the Kremlinologists have good reason for being prudent considering the brusque fashion that Premier Khrushchev has of late been so inconsiderately making nonsense out of the prevailing theories in Washington (and London) in the favorite field of speculation: "What the Russians really want."

The Soviet leader has been especially rough on the ranking Kremlinologists, among whom are counted such notable "political" scientists as Dr. Jerome Eiesner, science advisor to the President, and Dr. Hans Bethe in the field of nuclear testing.

THE LAST BLOW, of course, was Moscow's scornful rejection of its own previous demand—that nuclear testing talks be merged with disarmament—the moment that Washington and London after much soul searching, agreed to accept this Soviet proposal.

It is hard to see how this rejection does anything else but shatter beyond repair—or rationalization—the most prestigious operating theory held by Kremlinologists of the last few years that the Russians "really want" a nuclear test ban treaty.

In years when this theory flourished Premier Khrushchev in on-the-record interviews with prominent Western journalists solemly stated that Russia would never bother to test underground because "we are not interested in developing small nuclear bombs. If there is a war we will use our big bombs."

At the same time Soviet scientists at Geneva and international conferences were ridiculing Western suspicion of hidden underground tests, saying that such elaborate measures as digging a big hole for a bomb explosion constituted the kind of capitalist extravagance that no self respecting economy-minded socialist state would be caught duplicating.

Well, as is well known, the Soviet Union two weeks ago did stage an underground test.

There is another very simple explanation of recent events. This is the fact that Russia, realizing it was second to the United States, felt that the only way to catch up was deliberately to trick Washington into calling off its tests by pretending interest in a nuclear test ban. Then while we were talking and genuinely upholding the moratorium, the Russians rushed the laboratory and scientific work necessary to close the gap.

WHEN THE TIME came to test the scientific theories, Russia broke the moratorium, assured that while it had been moving ahead the United States had been standing still.

Some Facts And Figures On The Tax

Time and again when the city income tax is discussed this question is heard: "What did they do with all the money that already has been collected?"

It's a natural question and a logical one. But, contrary to many mistaken beliefs, the answer has been presented on several occasions, the latest being Saturday when Mayor Goodballet released some facts and figures relative to the tax.

For those who may have missed the latest accounting in The Review, the figures offered by the mayor are presented again. His report on the 1961 income and expenditures in the tax fund covers all the receipts and disbursements up to Dec. 31.

IT SHOWS disbursements of $40,924.89, transfers of $67,336.32 and a cash balance of $14,853.63. Added together, the three figures equal the tax collections of $123,114.84 listed through Dec. 31.

Included in the disbursements are five items of expenses incurred in the tax office operations. They are: Salaries, $11,729.17; printing forms and supplies, $4,429.27; incidentals, $2,111.60; equipment renovation and office alterations, $689.60, and consultant's contract, $6,300.

Also listed under disbursements are: Road oil purchase, $4,783.80; St. Clair Ave. improvement fund, $10,206, and interest on notes, $675.45.

The road oil was purchased for a citywide project for treating unsurfaced streets to keep down the dust in the summertime. The disbursement to the St. Clair Ave. fund represents money paid out for planning a new roadway on the stretch from Jennings Ave. to the city limits, for which the federal government has agreed to pay 50 per cent of the cost.

THE ITEM for interest on notes came about because the city borrowed money for pressing needs against the anticipated needs from the tax, then retired the notes out of part of the revenue. The alternative would have been to wait several months until the tax receipts built up.

The transfers, totaling $67,336.32, were: To general fund, $53,883.83; to street department fund, $6,700; to swimming pool fund, $1,500, and to bond retirement fund, $5,252.49.

The transfers mean that part of the income tax revenue were used to bolster the city's normal operating receipts. For instance, the general fund foots the bill for all the city offices as well as the fire and police departments, and others.

Last Of Her Kind?

The excursion steamer Avalon apparently has made her last run.

Her owners have filed a bankruptcy petition in Federal Court at Cincinnati and the Cincinnati City Council is considering purchase of the boat as a centerpiece for a waterfront development.

The passing of the Avalon from the scene could mean the end of the excursion trade in the Upper Ohio Valley. Many East Liverpool residents must feel like shedding a nostalgic tear at word of the stern-wheeler's plight.

Excursion boats have played a colorful part in the district's history and the Avalon and the others before her always could be counted on to add a spice of excitement and glamour to the daily routine.

No One Thinks About Charley

All of us have been impressed by the reports that negotiators for the steel industry are buckling down to work in a business-like manner.

Their work is cut out for them.

Spokesmen for the union must get higher wages, wider fringe benefits and more job security. Spokesmen for management must get a labor contract that will enable the steel industry to stay in business on the best competitive terms possible.

Both labor and management are charged with responsibility by the Kennedy administration, moreover, for bringing about a miracle of reconciling the seemingly irreconcilable in a non-inflationary manner.

It will be a good trick if they can do it, and they will do the best they can.

But in this negotiation as in every large-scale negotiation there is something missing. No one bargains in behalf of the consumer.

IT NEVER IS mentioned that mass consumption is the other side of mass production and that the classical formula which made the United States the first shining example of what could be done with modern industrialism was to pass along the fruits of efficiency in three dishes.

One dish was for employers, who were rewarded with more profit by selling an ever-increasing total of units.

One dish was for labor, rewarded with higher rates and more jobs by working ever more efficiently to make mass production possible.

The third dish was for the mass consumer, who was encouraged to raise his standard of living by being allowed to share in the savings from the ever-increasing efficiency of mass production.

But today, though everybody talks about efficiency, especially the efficiency of the new automated processes breaking out here, there and everywhere, no one ever talks about passing along any of the savings to consumers.

THE SAVINGS are claimed by unions. They are guarded by management. They are eyed by tax collectors. They are tapped by philanthropic endeavors. But how long has it been since someone made news by announcing an across-the-board saving for the consumers of the United States?

A consumer who thinks he should be entitled to a share of the good things, along with the members of labor unions and the stockholders, is told that he is lucky if the price of what he is supposed to buy doesn't go up — and if it does go up he's lucky it didn't go up even more.

Take a bow, Charley Consumer. You are the forgotten man.

Put Honesty Into The Hopper

The Kennedy administration wants to clear the track for drastic tariff reductions.

Its argument is that the United States must do business freely with the new European Economic Community or find itself on the outside looking in.

In the foreseeable future, say our tariff reducers, the United States must pare down its protection to stimulate trade with potential customers everywhere — in Asia as well as Europe.

The only way potential customers can buy more U.S. goods, runs the argument, is to sell more goods here. We must open the wealthy U.S. market to producers here, there and everywhere. If foreign competition hurts U.S. producers they must grin and bear it. If they are forced out of business, the government will try to help them struggle out of their joblessness and bankruptcy.

It's a thin promise.

We suggest that the Kennedy administration could beef it up by putting a proviso about honesty into the legislative hopper.

The proviso would say that all imported goods shall be inspected by the U.S. government to determine if they are what they purport to be.

The proviso would say the principle of fair trade shall be applied as rigorously to imported merchandise as it is to domestic goods.

It would say trade-marks cannot be copied willy-nilly and that things should be what they appear to be; i.e. if they appear to be made in the U.S.A., they should be made in the U.S.A., not in Lower Slobovia.

In some situations it might be necessary to let the potential U.S. buyer know what the standard of comparison would be in terms he is familiar with, such as making all imported hand tools bear acknowledgment of the fact they will not meet standards set by U.S. tools, if that is the case.

These are important provisos — important because they concern customers. U.S. manufacturers and their employes have enough trouble in prospect with foreign competition. They have a right to be protected against foreign misrepresentation while they fight for their lives.

Their protection should be spelled out in law.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

New York has a new proposal to end theater ticket "scalping." Feature is suggestion that box office be allowed to charge "all traffic will bear" above regular price on opening nights. This changes "orchestra circle" to "Go For Broke Section." (There should be a ninth row for customers' lawyers in case show is a flop and they want to sue immediately for money back.)

Producer of a regular $8 ticket show could double price for premiere, the difference to go for costs of getting play to Broadway. In case of a flop this would be "turkey" insurance.

Main idea, however, is to keep the extra money in the theater instead of outside among certified "scalpers." Cash customer gets sandbagged by the theater instead of by a stranger. He obtains his overcharge direct, and with positively no waiting.

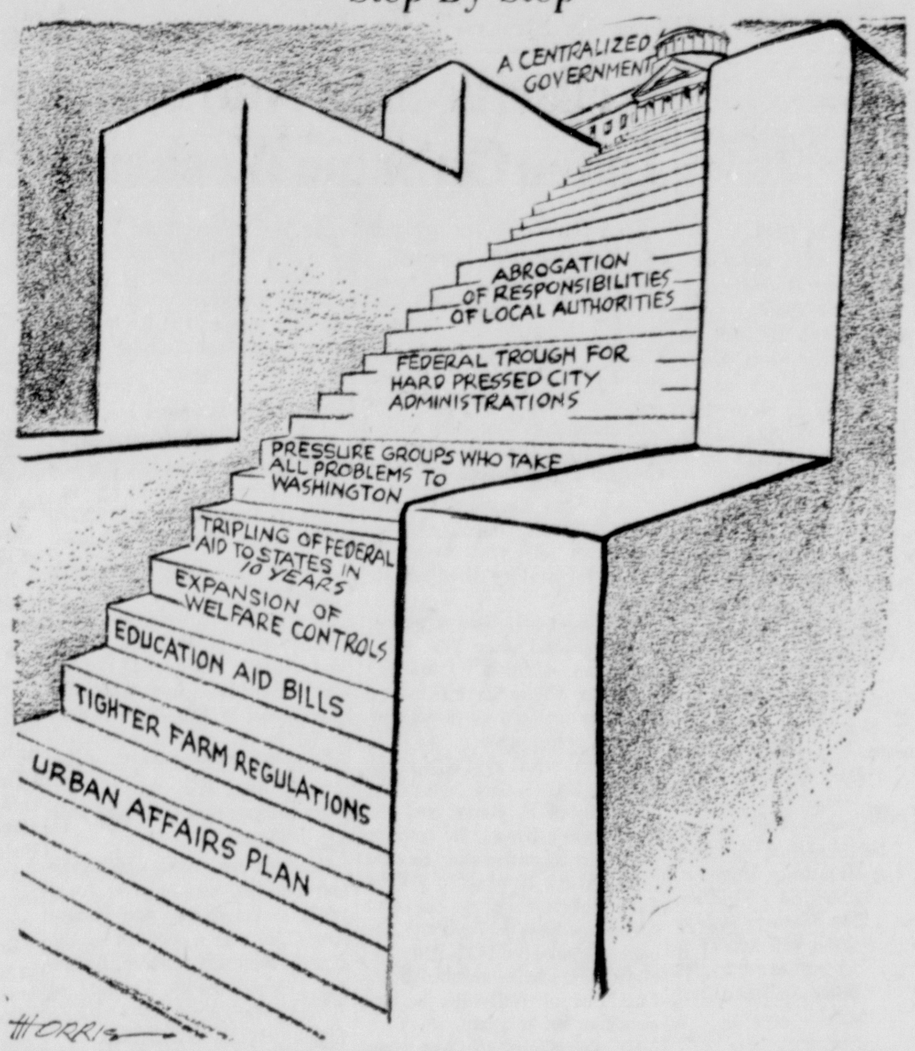
It's really Broadway Plan No. 4632. First war on ticket brokers, etc., came while Indians were just leaving Manhattan Island. Second, third and fourth campaigns came during Madison administration, Custer's last Fight and period extending from Spanish-American War and Lillian Russell, through prohibition and "hobbled skirt must go" period. Despite all such crusades it costs more today than ever to get a seat to a hit show.

If the "First Eight Rows for Heavy Spenders" is adopted for first nights, buyers should get trading stamps, in case of flops. If he gets enough stamps through "turkeys" he should be entitled to a free matinee seat to a revival of "The Student Prince."

Only two states in the U. S. — New York and Massachusetts — have laws for compulsory automobile insurance. In fact, the U. S. is one of the very few western nations which do not require accident insurance of every car owner.

The record for the first transcontinental airplane flight was made in 1911 by Robert G. Fowler. It required 35 days between Florida and California.

Step By Step



Prescription For The Republicans

By Raymond Moley

Republicans have completed their series of Lincoln Day speeches, and they can now go back to their drawing boards. The verbal explosions were of a very low yield and the fallout slight along the Eastern Seaboard where Sen. Jacob K. Javits grumbled in New York City with Gov. John A. Volpe of Massachusetts and Sen. Margaret Chase Smith was heard from in Bangor, Me.

They spoke of party division rather than party unity, of what Republicans should do rather than the basic questions of just how to get into a position to implement any program.

They raked their party, leaving their party's opponent relatively unscathed. Theirs was a weary recital of precisely what Democrats might have ghosted for them.

Javits claimed that the party was "paying too much attention to the 'thunder on the right' and not enough to the 'thunder in the cities.'"

FROM MAINE, Sen. Margaret Chase Smith indulged in attacks on Republicans who would not declare their candidacy for 1964, on GOP faintheartedness and defeatism. She even launched into a consideration of 1968.

Sen. Javits, in particular, resembled a man watering his rose bushes while his house burns. After all, with a big Democratic majority in Congress, with committee chairmen all Democrats, and a Democratic President constantly sending messages to the Hill and bringing enormous political pressure to bear for liberal measures, the function of the Republican party must, in our two-party system, be that of the opposition.

The Republican party, like the defensive platoon on Sunday afternoon, does not call plays for the offense. It does not propose, for it does not have the ball. Chaining loyal opposition to negativism does Javits' party a grave disservice.

Fundamental differences do exist between a great majority of Republicans and the majority of Democrats in Congress. This is revealed by a most comprehensive study of voting on 115 roll calls in the Senate and 40 in the House of Representatives by a highly reliable private research agency.

THE VOTING considered involved domestic issues only—government intervention in the private economy, spending and fiscal responsibility, bureaucratic growth and centralization of federal power and labor relations.

How did Sen. Javits measure up to the great majority of his party's members in the Senate? On domestic conservatism he voted 80 times with the overwhelming majority of the Democrats. His record is a 27-per-cent average of what most members of his party supported.

Senators Keating and Smith rate 58 and 61 per cent respectively.

In his Lincoln Day dinner remarks, Javits asserted that President Kennedy had "failed to redeem his campaign pledges on civil rights . . . to denounce or request action to modernize our unjust and discriminatory immigration laws . . . to obtain support within his own party for a critically needed program of medical care for the aging."

He also attacked the President for bungling "the leadership on federal aid to education." Of course, these matters involve Javits' avid desire for even greater federal centralism.

It is difficult for Republicans to take seriously the ideological advice of a man who has firmly identified himself with the most liberal wing of the Democratic party. Javits' 27-per-cent is approached by only one other Republical Sen., Clifford Case of New Jersey with 29-per-cent.

THE TREND in the new members of the House of Representatives shows that in most cases they have responsible conservative voting records. Surely they would say that they are representing their constituents' best interests and would hardly agree with Javits that what is good for New York City is good for the rest of the country.

There are many indications that people around the country are becoming more and more wary toward federal centralism. Many of these new Republican representatives have learned that a frail bridge of words, resembling what the liberal Democrats have advocated, is no substitute for a sound, reinforced structure of organization.

Lincoln Day dinner speakers might better have taken a prescription from Abraham Lincoln's wisdom about party success: "The whole state must be so well organized that every Whig can be brought to the polls. So divide the country into small districts and appoint in each a committee. Make a perfect list of the voters and ascertain with certainty for whom they will vote. . . . Keep a constant watch on the doubtful voters and have them talked to by those in whom they have the most confidence. . . .On election days see that every Whig is brought to the polls."

Public Uncertain Of Political Motives

Mass meetings to espouse a cause are not only legitimate as an expression of the free speech idea in America, but they give a chance to publicize movements that sometimes have a hard time getting attention.

the barroom and the gambling casino or the upstairs rooms. Each area had separate outside entrances, the agents said.

The tavern's D-5 liquor permit was transferred May 23 from Mrs. C. R. Gorman to Kitty Kat Klub, Inc. The stockholders are Bruno, president; his wife, Angeline, and Paul and Yolanda Thomas of Mingo Junction.

At 3:15 a. m., while the agents moved through the tavern uncovering evidence, an explosion in the northwest corner of the building in the area of the men's rest room rocked the tavern.

The force of the explosion shook the whole building, blowing out one wall and bulging others, ripping out all the restroom fixtures, bursting water pipes, hurling the commode more than 10 feet, knocking off siding, and tearing a cornice from the women's rest room. It also knocked down plaster in the barroom and shattered a lamp in the upstairs.

Galayda said there was a strong odor of explosive powder in the tavern. He said there was no doubt in his mind that the explosion was caused by a bomb because of the strong smell of burned powder.

In the confusion that followed the explosion, a number of patrons fled from the gambling room. Agents said there was no one in the barroom section when the explosion went off. They added no one could have gained access to the rest room from the outside without considerable effort.

"I don't believe that whoever planted that explosive device knew we were there," the chief agent said.

"Someone had stepped on someone's toes and they were trying to get a little message across. This was pre-planned. There has been some sort of an intrusion here," Galayda said.

The agents said the person who planted the bomb put it far enough away and timed it so that there would be no patrons injured. Galayda noted the bar had been closed for some time and that the night club restroom was the fartherest point from the area occupied by the gamblers.

The agents entered the tavern at 10:30 Saturday night and remained on the premises collecting evidence unobserved until 12:30 a. m. Sunday.

Then they began the raid, with two agents moving into the upstairs and two others staying downstairs. After they had gained access to both sections, they notified the Ohio Highway Patrol and the Jefferson County sheriff's department.

Algeria

meet the French at a secret location.

Throughout the week optimism reigned both in Paris and Tunis over progress of the talks. But over the weekend there was a note of pessimism with reports from Tunis that difficulties had cropped up.

The French and the Algerians have been coming closer together on a settlement of their 7½-year war of rebellion for some time. On Feb. 5, De Gaulle, scorning right-wing plotters against his rule, expressed hopes before a national television audience that peace with the Algerians would come soon.

In Algeria, however, rightist Europeans vow to keep Algeria French and seek to block its independence through the terrorist Secret Army Organization.

The secret army has pledged itself to a long guerrilla campaign against De Gaulle and against any provisional executive body that would assume control of the French colony.

front of Wilson's auto, police said.

Pilgrim asked a continuance to obtain an attorney when arraigned this morning before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Judge Chertoff scheduled his hearing for Friday at 9 a. m. and fixed his bond at $500.

Two other mishaps were reported in weekend traffic — one in West End and the other in East End.

A collision Saturday at 1:42 p.m. on Pennsylvania Ave. at Mulberry St. damaged a 1960 sedan driven by Edward Gruber, 69, of Rochester and a 1958 sedan operated by Edward Larkins, 40, of 233 W. 2nd St., police said.

Larkins said his auto was halted when hit from the rear by Gruber's. Gruber said he was unable to halt in time because of wet pavement, officers said.

A similar mishap Saturday at 8:15 p.m. on Lisbon St. at W. 8th St. damaged a 1958 convertible driven by John D. Smith, 38, of Parma and a 1959 four-door sedan operated by Edward C. Edgar, 54, of LaCroft, officers said.

Both cars were traveling west on W. 8th and turned north on Lisbon St. when Smith stopped and his car was hit from the rear by Edgar's police said.

Edgar blamed icy pavement. There was damage to the rear of Smith's car and the front of Edgar's, police said.

Hancock's Utility Rate Unchanged

Public utility assessments in Hancock County for 1962 total $5,499,000, the same as last year, according to a report filed in the County Courthouse in New Cumberland Saturday.

The rates are set by the Public Service Commission in Charleston.

They are: Pittsburgh and Weirton Bus Co., $35,400; Philadelphia, Baltimore & Washington Railroad, $212,200; Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co., $1,037,200; Western Union, $900.

Sinclair Pipe Line Co., $1,000; Manufacturer's Light & Heat Co., $996,000; Ashland Pipe Line Co., $1,600; Monongahela Power Co., $2,871; Newell Bridge & Railway Co., $188,000.

Eastern Greyhound, $15,200; American Bus Lines, Inc., $700; American Telephone & Telegraph, $1,700; Western Fruit Express Co., $19,000; the Pullman Co., $500; and the Muskingum Valley Transit Co., $3,600.

Anthony Leon, county assessor, said today that the real estate and personal property assessments will be completed by the end of next week.

False Pretense Case Will Be Heard Feb. 27

A W. 7th St. resident is due for a hearing Feb. 27 in Municipal Court on a charge of obtaining $273 under false representations.

Harry Whittenberger, 205 W. 7th St., was arraigned before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff this morning, but his counsel, Atty. W. S. Foulks, asked a continuance because of other commitments. Whittenberger's $200 property bond was continued.

The affidavit was filed by Robert Emery, who gave court officials telephone numbers in East Liverpool and Wellsville at which he could be contacted.

The affidavit alleges Whittenberger "did obtain $273 with the consent of Robert Emery induced by false representations." The transaction took place Jan. 26 and the affidavit was filed Jan. 30.

Democratic Club Hears Aspirants At Lawrenceville

Approximately 106 attended a meeting of the Grant District Democrat Club Sunday afternoon in the Lawrenceville fire station, near Chester.

Several candidates in the county primary and others entered in Chester's primary were introduced.

Atty. William Moore of Weirton and Elmer Robinson of Chester discussed the voting record of Rep. Cleveland M. Bailey of Clarksburg, who is seeking re-election in the May 8 primary.

It was announced that Rep. Bailey, 1st District congressman, would attend the next meeting either March 17 or March 18 at the Newell fire station.

Alonzo Brown, vice president, assisted in citing Rep. Bailey's voting record in the state legislature.

County candidates introduced included Donald Stewart and Nelson Ross, for county clerk; John Camilli and Theodore Zagula, for circuit court clerk, and Robert Roach for county commissioner from Clay District.

Introduced as candidates for ward councilmen in Chester's primary were Charles Kology, Brooks Ash, Frank Decapio and Robinson, John Duffy for mayor, and Charles Morris, for clerk.

There was an open discussion on activities in Chester. Date of the next meeting will be announced by Miss Alberta Stravinsky, secretary. Arnie Durham of Newell is president. Julian Wilson, second vice president, presided.

The other requested measures were standby powers to reduce income taxes subject to veto by Congress and permanently enlarged unemployment benefits. The three, Kennedy said, would permit the government to act "more promptly, more flexibly and more forcefully to stabilize the economy."

The administration bill set out a formula which would permit the President to start the works programs. He could move when unemployment had risen in three out of four, or four out of six consecutive months by not less than one percentage point, and after the President determined that the action was needed to attain the goals of the employment act of 1946 — maximum employment, production and purchasing power.

Thailand is opposed to such a government, fearful that the pro-Communist Pathet Lao led by Souvanna's half brother, Prince Souphanouvong, would eventually gain control of the neighboring Southeast Asia kingdom bringing a threat to Thai security.

U.S. aid to Thailand—which has totaled $220 million plus $300 million more in military assistance over the past 10 years—was reviewed by Kennedy in his talks with government officials.

the barroom and the gambling casino or the upstairs rooms. Each area had separate outside entrances, the agents said.

The tavern's D-5 liquor permit was transferred May 23 from Mrs. C. R. Gorman to Kitty Kat Klub, Inc. The stockholders are Bruno, president; his wife, Angeline, and Paul and Yolanda Thomas of Mingo Junction.

At 3:15 a. m., while the agents moved through the tavern uncovering evidence, an explosion in the northwest corner of the building in the area of the men's rest room rocked the tavern.

The force of the explosion shook the whole building, blowing out one wall and bulging others, ripping out all the restroom fixtures, bursting water pipes, hurling the commode more than 10 feet, knocking off siding, and tearing a cornice from the women's rest room. It also knocked down plaster in the barroom and shattered a lamp in the upstairs.

Galayda said there was a strong odor of explosive powder in the tavern. He said there was no doubt in his mind that the explosion was caused by a bomb because of the strong smell of burned powder.

In the confusion that followed the explosion, a number of patrons fled from the gambling room. Agents said there was no one in the barroom section when the explosion went off. They added no one could have gained access to the rest room from the outside without considerable effort.

"I don't believe that whoever planted that explosive device knew we were there," the chief agent said.

"Someone had stepped on someone's toes and they were trying to get a little message across. This was pre-planned. There has been some sort of an intrusion here," Galayda said.

The agents said the person who planted the bomb put it far enough away and timed it so that there would be no patrons injured. Galayda noted the bar had been closed for some time and that the night club restroom was the fartherest point from the area occupied by the gamblers.

The agents entered the tavern at 10:30 Saturday night and remained on the premises collecting evidence unobserved until 12:30 a. m. Sunday.

Then they began the raid, with two agents moving into the upstairs and two others staying downstairs. After they had gained access to both sections, they notified the Ohio Highway Patrol and the Jefferson County sheriff's department.

Algeria

meet the French at a secret location.

Throughout the week optimism reigned both in Paris and Tunis over progress of the talks. But over the weekend there was a note of pessimism with reports from Tunis that difficulties had cropped up.

The French and the Algerians have been coming closer together on a settlement of their 7½-year war of rebellion for some time. On Feb. 5, De Gaulle, scorning right-wing plotters against his rule, expressed hopes before a national television audience that peace with the Algerians would come soon.

In Algeria, however, rightist Europeans vow to keep Algeria French and seek to block its independence through the terrorist Secret Army Organization.

The secret army has pledged itself to a long guerrilla campaign against De Gaulle and against any provisional executive body that would assume control of the French colony.

front of Wilson's auto, police said.

Pilgrim asked a continuance to obtain an attorney when arraigned this morning before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Judge Chertoff scheduled his hearing for Friday at 9 a. m. and fixed his bond at $500.

Two other mishaps were reported in weekend traffic — one in West End and the other in East End.

A collision Saturday at 1:42 p.m. on Pennsylvania Ave. at Mulberry St. damaged a 1960 sedan driven by Edward Gruber, 69, of Rochester and a 1958 sedan operated by Edward Larkins, 40, of 233 W. 2nd St., police said.

Larkins said his auto was halted when hit from the rear by Gruber's. Gruber said he was unable to halt in time because of wet pavement, officers said.

A similar mishap Saturday at 8:15 p.m. on Lisbon St. at W. 8th St. damaged a 1958 convertible driven by John D. Smith, 38, of Parma and a 1959 four-door sedan operated by Edward C. Edgar, 54, of LaCroft, officers said.

Both cars were traveling west on W. 8th and turned north on Lisbon St. when Smith stopped and his car was hit from the rear by Edgar's police said.

Edgar blamed icy pavement. There was damage to the rear of Smith's car and the front of Edgar's, police said.

They are: Pittsburgh and Weirton Bus Co., $35,400; Philadelphia, Baltimore & Washington Railroad, $212,200; Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co., $1,037,200; Western Union, $900.

Sinclair Pipe Line Co., $1,000; Manufacturer's Light & Heat Co., $996,000; Ashland Pipe Line Co., $1,600; Monongahela Power Co., $2,871; Newell Bridge & Railway Co., $188,000.

Anthony Leon, county assessor, said today that the real estate and personal property assessments will be completed by the end of next week.

False Pretense Case Will Be Heard Feb. 27

A W. 7th St. resident is due for a hearing Feb. 27 in Municipal Court on a charge of obtaining $273 under false representations.

Harry Whittenberger, 205 W. 7th St., was arraigned before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff this morning, but his counsel, Atty. W. S. Foulks, asked a continuance because of other commitments. Whittenberger's $200 property bond was continued.

The affidavit was filed by Robert Emery, who gave court officials telephone numbers in East Liverpool and Wellsville at which he could be contacted.

The affidavit alleges Whittenberger "did obtain $273 with the consent of Robert Emery induced by false representations." The transaction took place Jan. 26 and the affidavit was filed Jan. 30.

The other requested measures were standby powers to reduce income taxes subject to veto by Congress and permanently enlarged unemployment benefits. The three, Kennedy said, would permit the government to act "more promptly, more flexibly and more forcefully to stabilize the economy."

The administration bill set out a formula which would permit the President to start the works programs. He could move when unemployment had risen in three out of four, or four out of six consecutive months by not less than one percentage point, and after the President determined that the action was needed to attain the goals of the employment act of 1946 — maximum employment, production and purchasing power.

Thailand is opposed to such a government, fearful that the pro-Communist Pathet Lao led by Souvanna's half brother, Prince Souphanouvong, would eventually gain control of the neighboring Southeast Asia kingdom bringing a threat to Thai security.

U.S. aid to Thailand—which has totaled $220 million plus $300 million more in military assistance over the past 10 years—was reviewed by Kennedy in his talks with government officials.

Mishap Hurts Teen-Age Girl

A Youngstown teen-age girl was injured in a crash near Salem and the car of a city youth was damaged slightly when it hit a sign along Route 30 in two separate mishaps investigated over the weekend by the Lisbon State Highway Patrol.

The patrol also reported a Salineville area man's 12-year-old car was destroyed by fire apparently caused by defective wiring.

Kay M. Spear, 18, of Youngstown was injured when the car in which she was riding went off Route 62 and into a ditch a mile northeast of Salem Sunday at 11:35 p. m.

The patrol said the car, driven by Joseph A. Beraduce Jr., 20, also of Youngstown, went off the right side, went back onto the road, spun around and went off the left side backward into a ditch.

The girl suffered contusions and a possible fracture of the left ankle and was taken to Salem City Hospital. The patrol said Beraduce was cited on a charge of driving off the left side of the road.

The left front fender of a 1951 model car operated by Carlton D. Evans, 17, of Dresden Ave. Ext., was damaged when the car slid on icy pavement, went off the right side, and struck a construction warning sign on Route 30 Saturday at 9:30 p. m. The mishap occurred two-tenths of a mile north of the city. Evans escaped unhurt, the patrol said.

Officers reported the 1950 Chevrolet of Frank O. Llewellyn, 39, of Salineville R. D. 2 was destroyed by fire Saturday at 4 a.m. on Route 39, seven and one-tenth miles west of Wellsville.

The driver, headed east, noticed flames under the dashboard and stopped the car. It burned before Llewellyn could get aid, officers said.

'Improvement' Listed For Injured Motorist

A Beaver County man who was injured in a traffic crash on Route 168 Friday night remains a patient in Weirton General Hospital today.

James Dhayer, 21, of Georgetown is "slightly improved" after being "serious" over the weekend, the hospital said.

He suffered head and chest injuries and a possible fractured leg. Officers of the Carnegie Barracks of Pennsylvania State Police said he was thrown out when his car ran off the road. Police said the accident occurred about two miles north of Frankfort Springs on Route 168.

Group To Aid Student Tour

Highlandtown Home and School Association members voted to back the seventh and eighth grades in their drive to earn money for a trip to Washington in the spring when they met Friday night at the school.

The fifth and sixth grades led devotions, with Alcinda Dornick as the announcer, Debbie DeSellem reading the scripture and Jerry Wallace playing for group singing.

Robert McPherson, president, presided. The group extended a vote of thanks to Jerry Russell, principal, for his time and effort spent in coaching the basketball team. It also expressed gratitude to William Chrifield, who constructed book shelves for all the rooms.

Wayne Wallace gave a lecture on the life of Abraham Lincoln and events of the Civil War. He screened slides of Lincoln's boyhood home in Kentucky, the site of the Battle of Franklin, Tenn., in which several Columbiana County men fought and scenes of re-enactment of the first land battle of the Civil War in Phillipi, W. Va.

The fifth and sixth grades won the attendance banner. Lunch was served by the first and fourth grade homeroom mothers, with Mrs. Dean Rose and Mrs. Ralph Hays in charge.

The next meeting will be March 16.

Marietta College Gets $725,000 For Center

MARIETTA, Ohio (AP) — Marietta College has announced that it will build a million dollar fine arts center on the campus.

It will be financed by a $725,000 personal gift from Grover M. Hermann, chairman of the board of Martin Marietta Corp. of Chicago, and the late Sophia K. Russell of Marietta who died Feb. 9, college officials said.

The sum given by Hermann is the largest single gift ever received by the college. Hermann has been a previous donor to the college. The center will be named the "Grover M. Restaurant Fire Loss Set At $300

About $300 damage was caused to the kitchen of the Blue Top Restaurant at Substation Sunday afternoon when grease on a grill ignited while the owner was cleaning it.

John C. Fultz, the operator, who resides next door to the Route 30 diner, was cleaning the grill about 2:45 when it ignited, according to Chief Harry Reckner of the Glenmoor volunteer fire department.

Fultz received a slight burn of a hand while carrying a can of grease outside. Fourteen firemen and two trucks of the Glenmoor department responded to the alarm, Reckner said.

Firemen were at the site about 25 minutes. Calcutta firemen also answered the alarm.

Reckner announced Jesse Fordyce of Staunton Ave., Glenmoor, has been enrolled as a new member.

Restaurant Fire Loss Set At $300

About $300 damage was caused to the kitchen of the Blue Top Restaurant at Substation Sunday afternoon when grease on a grill ignited while the owner was cleaning it.

John C. Fultz, the operator, who resides next door to the Route 30 diner, was cleaning the grill about 2:45 when it ignited, according to Chief Harry Reckner of the Glenmoor volunteer fire department.

Fultz received a slight burn of a hand while carrying a can of grease outside. Fourteen firemen and two trucks of the Glenmoor department responded to the alarm, Reckner said.

Firemen were at the site about 25 minutes. Calcutta firemen also answered the alarm.

Reckner announced Jesse Fordyce of Staunton Ave., Glenmoor, has been enrolled as a new member.

Priest Sees Catholics As In Majority

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)— A Catholic educator predicted today that within half a century Roman Catholics will be in the majority in this country.

And then, said the Very Rev. John P. Leary, president of Gonzaga University in Spokane, Wash., the question of federal aid to private and parochial schools will be settled by "the strange accident of numbers and time."

In an interview at the annual convention of the American Association of School Administrators, Father Leary said, "I realize that my belief that there should be support for private schools is a minority viewpoint. But the views I hold are numerically on the rise."

He cited these figures:

"In the last five years, one-third of all the children born in this country were Catholic, although the Catholic population is only about one-sixth of the total.

"In 20 years, when this one-third have grown up, they probably will have half of all the children born.

"Within half a century, the Catholics will be a majority in this country."

Father Leary said he believes the government should pay a subsidy to the family of any child in a qualified and recognized private school, "something akin to the GI bill of rights."

Father Leary said there was always a hazard that extremist organizations such as the John Birch Society might try to establish such a private school but that "basically, this is strictly a Catholic problem, a problem that is going to disappear within 50 years, although there probably will be a strong minority opposed to federal aid for private and parochial schools."

Priest Sees Catholics As In Majority

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)— A Catholic educator predicted today that within half a century Roman Catholics will be in the majority in this country.

And then, said the Very Rev. John P. Leary, president of Gonzaga University in Spokane, Wash., the question of federal aid to private and parochial schools will be settled by "the strange accident of numbers and time."

In an interview at the annual convention of the American Association of School Administrators, Father Leary said, "I realize that my belief that there should be support for private schools is a minority viewpoint. But the views I hold are numerically on the rise."

He cited these figures:

"In the last five years, one-third of all the children born in this country were Catholic, although the Catholic population is only about one-sixth of the total.

"In 20 years, when this one-third have grown up, they probably will have half of all the children born.

"Within half a century, the Catholics will be a majority in this country."

Father Leary said he believes the government should pay a subsidy to the family of any child in a qualified and recognized private school, "something akin to the GI bill of rights."

Father Leary said there was always a hazard that extremist organizations such as the John Birch Society might try to establish such a private school but that "basically, this is strictly a Catholic problem, a problem that is going to disappear within 50 years, although there probably will be a strong minority opposed to federal aid for private and parochial schools."

New Tragedy Stalks Infant In Death Case

Tragedy seems to be stalking the life of Carol Ann Foster, 17-month-old daughter of a couple who died in a county murder and suicide about two weeks ago.

The child was burned in a fire Sunday afternoon at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Edna Dennis of Jefferson, Pa. The blaze routed 20 persons from the home.

Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin Thursday awarded custody of the child to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parker of Worcester, Mass. The child became a ward of the county after Ben L. Foster, 43, of Campbell killed his common-law wife, Mary Lou Dennis, 18, of Rices Landing, Pa., Feb. 7.

He shot her four times while in a car on Route 7 near the junction of Route 14. Foster then called the State Highway Patrol and was escorted to Salem City Hospital. As they pulled into the hospital parking lot, Foster shot himself. He died the next day.

The child was in the rear seat beside the mother's body.

Mrs. Parker is a sister of the dead woman. Apparently they stopped at the grandmother's home to visit.

Authorities at Jefferson said the fire was started by sparks from an open grate. The child suffered second degree burns and was treated at Greene County Memorial Hospital at Waynesburg, Pa.

Mrs. Dennis and the others, including most of her remaining 12 children and her grandchildren, escaped uninjured.

Police said between 15 and 20 relatives had been staying at Mrs. Dennis' home since the funeral of the child's mother Feb. 11.

Elizabeth Taylor Leaves Hospital After Food Bout

ROME (AP)—Actress Elizabeth Taylor went home today from Salvator Mundi Hospital. She was rushed there Saturday night, unconscious, after an attack of food poisoning.

Her husband, Eddie Fisher, who flew here Sunday from Lisbon, drove her back to their villa.

Nurses at the hospital said she slept restfully and had breakfast this morning. They said she was feeling much better. The 29-year-old actress is due to go back to work Wednesday on her latest picture.

A family spokesman and officials of 20th Century-Fox Film Corp. in Rome denied at first that the actress was sick. This only led to a flood of speculation that she was gravely ill for there was an emergency call for an ambulance to her home here.

Miss Taylor's personal physician said later she was stricken with food poisoning, apparently from eating tainted oysters.

New Tragedy Stalks Infant In Death Case

Tragedy seems to be stalking the life of Carol Ann Foster, 17-month-old daughter of a couple who died in a county murder and suicide about two weeks ago.

The child was burned in a fire Sunday afternoon at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Edna Dennis of Jefferson, Pa. The blaze routed 20 persons from the home.

Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin Thursday awarded custody of the child to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parker of Worcester, Mass. The child became a ward of the county after Ben L. Foster, 43, of Campbell killed his common-law wife, Mary Lou Dennis, 18, of Rices Landing, Pa., Feb. 7.

He shot her four times while in a car on Route 7 near the junction of Route 14. Foster then called the State Highway Patrol and was escorted to Salem City Hospital. As they pulled into the hospital parking lot, Foster shot himself. He died the next day.

The child was in the rear seat beside the mother's body.

Mrs. Parker is a sister of the dead woman. Apparently they stopped at the grandmother's home to visit.

Authorities at Jefferson said the fire was started by sparks from an open grate. The child suffered second degree burns and was treated at Greene County Memorial Hospital at Waynesburg, Pa.

Mrs. Dennis and the others, including most of her remaining 12 children and her grandchildren, escaped uninjured.

Police said between 15 and 20 relatives had been staying at Mrs. Dennis' home since the funeral of the child's mother Feb. 11.

Firemen Clean Truck, Station

Firemen cleaned the Industry fire hall and their truck Saturday after making plans for the work day at their meeting Thursday evening.

Clyde Edmiston, vice president, presided. A ham dinner was panned for Sunday, Feb. 25, from 3 to 6:30 p. m. and tickets may be obatined from firemen or at the door.

About $199 has been received in the "Buck-a-Month Club" this year.

Fire Chief Louis Phillips spoke briefly and stressed care and maintenance of fire trucks. Arthur (Ray) Hendershot, borough police officer, was accepted as a new member.

It was announced that the Beaver County Fireman's Relief Association will meet Wednesday at 7 p. m. at the Harmony Township fire hall.

Firemen set the week of June 4-9 for their annual carnival at the fire hall grounds.

Next meeting is March 1.

Open sandwiches are great for evening snacks. One delicious combination is made this way: arrange thin slices of roast beef on dark bread and center with a mound of chopped jellied consomme topped with horseradish. Men like this! Use fresh grated horseradish if you can; otherwise substitute the drained bottled variety.

Glass Firm's Contract Set

CINCINNATI (AP) — Negotiators went more than a day past deadline before agreeing on a new contract for the glass division of Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co.

Agreement came just before midnight Saturday after day-long joint bargaining sessions with the United Glass Workers Union.

Chief features of the contract are a 12-cent hourly pay raise, split over the two years of contract life, and formation of a study group on compensation for employes.

Both sides were tight-lipped on progress throughout the talks which began here Feb. 5. Spokesmen for company and union limited comments after the settlement to a joint announcement.

The new contract also liberalized insurance and vacation provisions, plus setting up a retirement plan for employes who want to retire early at age 62. If they have 15 years continuous service, they can take an early pension of $5 monthly for every year of service.

The wage hike will up base minimum pay to $2.33 hourly in the second year of the contract. The increase does not affect rates used to figure bonuses, incentive pay or piece work rates.

An estimated 12,000 employes were covered by the contract, involving plants at Mount Vernon, Ohio, Henryetta, Okla.; Clarksburg, W. Va.; Crystal City, Mo.; Cumberland, Md., and at Ford City and Creighton, Pa.

Legion Head Tells Post Of Red Menace

"America faces its greatest challenge in communism," Jack R. Adams of Wheeling, West Virginia American Legion commander, declared at the annual Chester Post 121 Past Commanders Night dinner Saturday at the post home.

Adams said Friday's seizure of an American - controlled telephone facility in Brazil typifies the spread of anti - Americanism in South and Central America.

"The communist onslaught in Cuba was not for Cuba alone, but for the United States and South America," Adams said. "We in America are facing the greatest challenge over hurled at us — we must act, we must face 'isms' squarely and back our government in whatever action is needed to still these threats."

About 175 attended the event, at which past commanders of the post were honored. Past commanders present included Dwight Allison, Floyd Peddycord, John Corcoran, Dale Allison, Charles Morris, John Merriman, Ray Gilliland and Tony Amedeo.

Al West served as master of ceremonies. A picture of Jack Huff, commander, was presented to Huff by Morris, past commander, and officials of Lawrenceville and Newell posts.

The dinner was prepared and served by auxiliary members, including Mrs. Eleanor Huff, chairman, Mrs. Helen Eskra, president, Mrs. Miriam Corcoran, Mrs. Martha Pugh, Mrs. Dorothy Smith and Mrs. Nina Marian.

Merriman was chairman of the social committee which included Melvin Hissom, Robert Johnson and Morrell Yost.

Vince Mundy's orchestra played for dancing.

Vets Angered By Medal's 'Made In Japan' Marking

Apparently miffed at having found the words "Made In Japan" stamped on the back of a medal it had purchased for a group in its organization, Hancock County Voiture 1459 of the 40 & 8 Society Sunday resolved to urge members in West Virginia to support the "Buy American" campaign.

Passed unanimously by a standing vote at the voiture's meeting in Chester American Legion home, the resolution says the particular medal is offered for sale and that members "refuse to purchase, or wear aforesaid medals which were made in Japan."

The voiture had purchased a chapeau medal for the Voyageurs Militaire of the Grand Voiture of West Virginia, later discovering it was stamped "Made In Japan."

The resoltuion declared "our means of livelihood, which affects the welfare of our families and communities, is seriously threatened by the importation of manufactured items from foreign countries. The items being manufactured are as a result of low wages, cheap materials and a standard of living far below that of our beloved land."

The voiture resolved to urge other Voitures, American Legion posts and their "homes" to vigorously support the "Buy American" campaign. A copy is to be sent to all other voitures in the state.

Charles L. Huffman, chef de gare, presided.

Mae Allison, a senior at Chester High School, was awarded a nurse's scholarship and will attend the school of nursing of Ohio Valley Hospital in Steubenville. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Allison of Chester R. D. 1.

Charles W. Morris, director of the nurse's training project, reported on applications of candidates and progress of the program.

The voiture also voted to send a child to the ninth annual "King and Queen For A Day" program, sponsored by the Grand Voiture in Charleston in April.

Named as a nominating committee by the chef de gare to prepare a slate of officers for next year are Evert Maki of Weirton, M. J. Sweeney of East Liverpool, George LaNeve of Newell and Morris, of Chester.

John Merriman, Dwight Allison and Melvin Hissom, all of Chester, were named to a committee to investigate new members. Allison presented the financial report.

A letter of sympathy was ordered sent to Cy Gump, active leader of the Elkins Voiture, whose father died last week.

Next meeting will be March 18 in the Newell American Legion home, when a memorial certificate will be presented to Mrs. Orell Johnson, widow of past chef de gare Orell Johnson. The public may attend the ceremony.

Group Backs District Canal

A new organization called Interconnecting Waterway, Inc., has been formed at Youngstown to seek support for plans to construct a canal linking the Ohio River at Rochester with Lake Erie at Ashtabula.

The group will seek incorporation papers this week from Secretary of State Ted W. Brown at Columbus. Its president is Charles G. Nichols, president of G. M. McKelvey Co., a Youngstown department store.

The vice presidents are Alfred S. Grossbrenner, president of the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., and James P. Griffin, a district director of the United Steelworkers of America.

Youngstown has led the campaign for construction of the waterway, seeing it as a way of obtaining the benefits of low cost transportation for its landlocked steel mills. Based partly on a public hearing held a few weeks ago at Youngstown, the U. S. Corps of Engineers is making a study to determine the economic justification for the project.

Meanwhile, in a weekend statement, Rep. Carroll D. Kearns, representing Crawford, Erie and Mercer Counties in Northwestern Pennsylvania, declared that the canal project is not practical, so far as Pennsylvania is concerned. He said the canal would have an adverse effect on railroad freight business and plans for a Pittsburgh - Erie Throughway.

Crucible Sells Land Of Pittsburgh Plant

The Crucible Steel Co. has sold 9½ acres of land and buildings at its closed Park Works at Pittsburgh.

The property was purchased by Eazor Express, Inc., for new facilities for an expansion and consolidation of its motor freight operations.

Crucible closed the Park Works in 1960, transferring production of hollow drill steels to the Midland Works.

Ballet Star Admits Dancing Hurts Toes

NASHVILLE (AP) — An international ballet star has admitted with unprofessional frankness what the non-dancer has believed all along: toe dancing can be hard on the toes.

"Dancing is not really a natural thing for the body but we have to make it look natural," said Toni Lander, blonde beauty who was born in Copenhagen, lives in Paris and dances with the American Ballet Theater.

"Many times our legs get tired and our toes hurt."

The remedy, she said, is universal:

"We soak our feet. But if we don't have time to worry with them, we just grin and bear it."

Firemen Clean Truck, Station

Firemen cleaned the Industry fire hall and their truck Saturday after making plans for the work day at their meeting Thursday evening.

Clyde Edmiston, vice president, presided. A ham dinner was panned for Sunday, Feb. 25, from 3 to 6:30 p. m. and tickets may be obatined from firemen or at the door.

About $199 has been received in the "Buck-a-Month Club" this year.

Fire Chief Louis Phillips spoke briefly and stressed care and maintenance of fire trucks. Arthur (Ray) Hendershot, borough police officer, was accepted as a new member.

It was announced that the Beaver County Fireman's Relief Association will meet Wednesday at 7 p. m. at the Harmony Township fire hall.

Firemen set the week of June 4-9 for their annual carnival at the fire hall grounds.

Next meeting is March 1.

Open sandwiches are great for evening snacks. One delicious combination is made this way: arrange thin slices of roast beef on dark bread and center with a mound of chopped jellied consomme topped with horseradish. Men like this! Use fresh grated horseradish if you can; otherwise substitute the drained bottled variety.

Glass Firm's Contract Set

CINCINNATI (AP) — Negotiators went more than a day past deadline before agreeing on a new contract for the glass division of Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co.

Agreement came just before midnight Saturday after day-long joint bargaining sessions with the United Glass Workers Union.

Chief features of the contract are a 12-cent hourly pay raise, split over the two years of contract life, and formation of a study group on compensation for employes.

Both sides were tight-lipped on progress throughout the talks which began here Feb. 5. Spokesmen for company and union limited comments after the settlement to a joint announcement.

The new contract also liberalized insurance and vacation provisions, plus setting up a retirement plan for employes who want to retire early at age 62. If they have 15 years continuous service, they can take an early pension of $5 monthly for every year of service.

Era Of Revivals Discussed By Speaker At Colloquium

Mrs. Glenn Roberts, a member, spoke on "The Age of the Sawdust Trail" of the evangelistic era for the meeting of the Colloquium Club Thursday night with Mrs. Edward Sanford of Manor Ln.

She divided the periods of revivals into four groups, from 1725 to 1750, 1795 to 1835, 1875 to 1920, and 1945 until the predicted time of 1970. The first evangelist to "hit the sawdust trail" was Dwight L. Moody, who rose to fame in the third period. He was the first to preach in a business suit and held the first cottage prayer meetings and businessmen's luncheons.

The year of 1915 produced Billy Sunday and his influence in connection with prohibition was felt through his sermons in 13 states, which voted dry before the national law was passed.

This era also made Amy Semple McPherson a famous character, as she was the first faith healer. She worked in the Los Angeles area and she built the Angeles Temple.

Billy Graham is the top evangelist of the present day, and radio was mainly responsible for his successful career. He held the first tent meeting in 1949 in Los Angeles and converted several movie stars. His fame rose through publicity of his gatherings, which attracted thousands. He was graduated at the age of 19 from Wheaton College, Ill. Documentary movies have been made of his life.

The presentday era also produced Oral Roberts, who confines most of his evangelism to faith healing through the media of radio and TV.

Mrs. Ernest Lowe, president, conducted business and appointed a nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Edward Daily, chairman, Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Cecil Pugh and Mrs. Dave McEwen.

An invitation was read from the Child Counseling Center for the annual dinner Meeting March 6a t the Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

Refreshments were served at a buffet table covered with a pink linen and lace cloth. The centerpiece of philodendren, pink roses and violets was flanked by pink tapers encircled with violets. Heart-shaped candles and valentine cookies were favors. Mrs. Lowe presided at the silver tea service. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Lawrence Black, associate hostess, and Mrs. Chester Parsons and Mrs. Paul Jones.

Mrs. Daily will be program chairman for the meeting March 15 with Mrs. Walter Smith of Blackmore St. Mrs. Andrew Myers Jr. and Mrs. Henry Harry McHenry are co-hostesses.

Truce Calms Rival Wings Of AFL-CIO

By NORMAN WALKER
Associated Press Labor Writer

BAL HARBOUR, Fla. (AP)—AFL-CIO leaders opening their winter meeting said today the two-month-old armistice between feuding union groups appears to be holding up well.

Rival wings of the 12.5-million member union federation, representing the building trades and industrial union departments, reached a peace pact at a convention here in December.

Union leaders attending the AFL-CIO Executive Council meeting said that the comparative harmony has led to agreement to push joint legislative drives in Congress for measures on which there had been differing enthusiasms before.

Industrial unions reportedly have agreed to back the building trades in supporting amendments to the Davis-Bacon Act to include fringe benefits, such as pensions and welfare funds, along with pay rates in calculating prevailing wages on federal construction projects.

The government requires contractors working on such projects to meet the prevailing wages for the particular areas as determined by the government. Inclusion of fringe benefits would raise the prevailing wage determination and thus make it more certain nonunion contractors must match union-type labor costs.

The industrial unions also have agreed to help push another building trades goal, tightening overtime pay requirements on federally aid construction projects. Here again the aim primarily is to stiffen overtime pay obligations of nonunion contractors.

The industrial and building trades unions are nearing agreement, too, on still another legislative proposal. This seeks to legalize picketing at construction projects and factory gates where such picketing is now prohibited by the ban on secondary boycotts.

The new-found cooperation within the AFL-CIO is an outgrowth of the December agreement to curb union jurisdictional disputes through a new type of peace machinery.

Hotel Man Claimed

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Baron H. Long, 78, veteran California hotel man and former operator of the Agua Caliente, Mexico, race track and hotel, died Sunday, apparently of a heart attack. Long was board chairman of the Biltmore Hotel Co. in Los Angeles and operated the hotel from 1934 to 1958. He was born in Fort Wayne.

Steel Buyers Ponder Move Next Quarter

CLEVELAND (AP) — Steel buyers, with more steel than they expect to use in the first quarter this year, are asking: "What shall we do about the second quarter? Steel Magazine said today.

Inventories at the end of March will top by at least three million tons what they were on Jan. 1, the metalworking weekly said.

"If agreement on a new labor contract is reached within a few weeks, say by the end of March, steel production and shipments will probably be lower in the second quarter than in the first," according to the publication.

"Output will drop quickly to the level of consumption. Inventory building will cease."

Inventory liquidation will be offset largely by increased seasonal demand Steel said, concluding: "result: No significant drop in steel demand or inventory levels."

The magazine said an early labor settlement may take some of the steam out of the market in the second quarter, "But it won't diminish prospects for the year. Customers who avoid overstocking in the first half will have to buy as much as they consume in the second."

Ingot production this week will be slightly higher than the estimated 2,470,000 tons, poured last week, Steel said.

Leontyne Price Slated With Met At Cleveland

HOUSE OF THE FUTURE. This is one version of how houses may look 20 or 25 years from now. Note the landing deck for a helijet, the use of solar heat and an air wall separating the living room from an interior garden. It looks like a dream house now, but could be an average home in the future. While detailed plans for this "House of the Future" are not yet available, further information about it may be obtained from the architect, Herman H. York, 90-04 161st St., Jamaica 32, N. Y.

An Architect Takes A Look Years Ahead

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

You can do completely without a crystal ball in predicting that there will be quite a few changes in home design and construction in the next 20 or 25 years.

But what kind of changes?

We asked the noted architect, Herman H. York, to give us some idea of what the home of the future might be like. He started by explaining that there are a number of probable influencing factors which would affect the design of houses along about 1982.

"Some of these factors," said York, "will be the high cost of land, the high cost of utilities, the desirability of privacy, less use of the automobile and more of the helicopter, the development of solar heat, a wider acceptance of open planning, more use of the "air wall" and continued recognition of the homes as a status symbol."

The high cost of land and utilities would be taken care of by the use of a cluster housing plan in which the dwelling unit would be part of a group of houses with a common walk and by the use of shorter street frontages.

Large rear yard gardens and sun decks overlooking the garden would solve the privacy problem. There would be an aircraft landing area on the roof, readily accessible to the rooms below.

Solar heat collection devices would be incorporated into the architectural design. The floor plan layout would open the main rooms on the main floor level and upstairs to the garden and sun deck area.

Air walls would be used between the living rooms and gardens. And luxury would be apparent at the front entry by long vistas from the front foyer through the house to the rear garden area.

York said some of the conveniences used today would still be popular 20 or 25 years from now.

Ohio Firm Works On Lunar Project

CLEVELAND (AP)—Scientists at Lewis Research Center in Cleveland have the delicate job of developing a rocket that will enable Project Apollo astronauts to land safely on the moon.

This spent rocket will serve as the launch pad for the spacecraft's trip to the moon and back to earth.

Contracts for the new development may reach $500 million in the next few years, Dr. Abe Silverstein, director of the center, said Sunday. Lewis Center is under the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The Lewis research and development project is one of three sections for the spacecraft that will be used in Project Apollo—the United States' attempt to land a three-man team on the moon by 1970. Other work is being done in Huntsville, Ala., and Houston, Tex.

Silverstein said Lewis will administer all of the industrial contracts for producing the rocket known as a "lunar landing module." A test stand for such an engine is being designed for the Plum Brook test site near Sandusky.

Truce Calms Rival Wings Of AFL-CIO

By NORMAN WALKER
Associated Press Labor Writer

BAL HARBOUR, Fla. (AP)—AFL-CIO leaders opening their winter meeting said today the two-month-old armistice between feuding union groups appears to be holding up well.

Rival wings of the 12.5-million member union federation, representing the building trades and industrial union departments, reached a peace pact at a convention here in December.

Union leaders attending the AFL-CIO Executive Council meeting said that the comparative harmony has led to agreement to push joint legislative drives in Congress for measures on which there had been differing enthusiasms before.

Industrial unions reportedly have agreed to back the building trades in supporting amendments to the Davis-Bacon Act to include fringe benefits, such as pensions and welfare funds, along with pay rates in calculating prevailing wages on federal construction projects.

The government requires contractors working on such projects to meet the prevailing wages for the particular areas as determined by the government. Inclusion of fringe benefits would raise the prevailing wage determination and thus make it more certain nonunion contractors must match union-type labor costs.

The industrial unions also have agreed to help push another building trades goal, tightening overtime pay requirements on federally aid construction projects. Here again the aim primarily is to stiffen overtime pay obligations of nonunion contractors.

The industrial and building trades unions are nearing agreement, too, on still another legislative proposal. This seeks to legalize picketing at construction projects and factory gates where such picketing is now prohibited by the ban on secondary boycotts.

The new-found cooperation within the AFL-CIO is an outgrowth of the December agreement to curb union jurisdictional disputes through a new type of peace machinery.

Steel Buyers Ponder Move Next Quarter

CLEVELAND (AP) — Steel buyers, with more steel than they expect to use in the first quarter this year, are asking: "What shall we do about the second quarter? Steel Magazine said today.

Inventories at the end of March will top by at least three million tons what they were on Jan. 1, the metalworking weekly said.

"If agreement on a new labor contract is reached within a few weeks, say by the end of March, steel production and shipments will probably be lower in the second quarter than in the first," according to the publication.

"Output will drop quickly to the level of consumption. Inventory building will cease."

Inventory liquidation will be offset largely by increased seasonal demand Steel said, concluding: "result: No significant drop in steel demand or inventory levels."

The magazine said an early labor settlement may take some of the steam out of the market in the second quarter, "But it won't diminish prospects for the year. Customers who avoid overstocking in the first half will have to buy as much as they consume in the second."

Ingot production this week will be slightly higher than the estimated 2,470,000 tons, poured last week, Steel said.

HOUSE OF THE FUTURE. This is one version of how houses may look 20 or 25 years from now. Note the landing deck for a helijet, the use of solar heat and an air wall separating the living room from an interior garden. It looks like a dream house now, but could be an average home in the future. While detailed plans for this "House of the Future" are not yet available, further information about it may be obtained from the architect, Herman H. York, 90-04 161st St., Jamaica 32, N. Y.

An Architect Takes A Look Years Ahead

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

You can do completely without a crystal ball in predicting that there will be quite a few changes in home design and construction in the next 20 or 25 years.

But what kind of changes?

We asked the noted architect, Herman H. York, to give us some idea of what the home of the future might be like. He started by explaining that there are a number of probable influencing factors which would affect the design of houses along about 1982.

"Some of these factors," said York, "will be the high cost of land, the high cost of utilities, the desirability of privacy, less use of the automobile and more of the helicopter, the development of solar heat, a wider acceptance of open planning, more use of the "air wall" and continued recognition of the homes as a status symbol."

The high cost of land and utilities would be taken care of by the use of a cluster housing plan in which the dwelling unit would be part of a group of houses with a common walk and by the use of shorter street frontages.

Large rear yard gardens and sun decks overlooking the garden would solve the privacy problem. There would be an aircraft landing area on the roof, readily accessible to the rooms below.

Solar heat collection devices would be incorporated into the architectural design. The floor plan layout would open the main rooms on the main floor level and upstairs to the garden and sun deck area.

Air walls would be used between the living rooms and gardens. And luxury would be apparent at the front entry by long vistas from the front foyer through the house to the rear garden area.

York said some of the conveniences used today would still be popular 20 or 25 years from now.

But there would be changes in water supply and sewage disposal systems. And costs of the house would be kept reasonable because the parts would be put together in far fewer pieces, reducing the labor required at the site.

Maintenance Minimized By Spatter Floor Finish

NEW YORK — Every housewife dreams of a colorful floor that does not show dirt, scuff marks, spilled foods and beverages, and which requires a minimum of maintenance.

Spatter finishes, sometimes called spatter-dash, provide an easy way to fulfill this dream.

This finish consists of a coat of tough quality floor enamel in the color of your choice, which is spattered at random with one or more other colors of this durable finish.

If your present painted floor is in good condition, and the colors bright and true, there is no need to repaint. But be sure that it is free of dirt, wax, polish and grease. Mop it clean and let it dry before proceeding.

If the floor has not been painted previously or if the old paint is in poor condition, then apply floor enamel in the manner to be described later on.

To get the spatters, here's what you do. Dip a brush in a can of the first color you want for the polka dot effect. Holding the brush in your right hand with the bristle pointed up, strike the metal band that holds the bristles — the technical name is ferrule — against a stick held in the other hand.

For small spatters, the brush should not be fully loaded and the stick against which it is struck should be held about a foot from the floor. For larger spatters, fill the brush fully and hold the stick three feet or so above the floor.

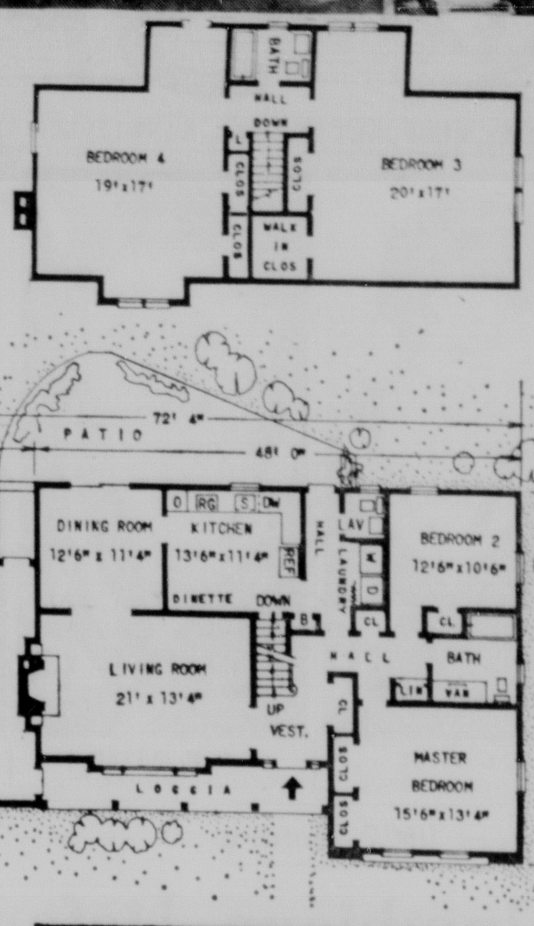
Be sure to protect the walls and baseboard with newspaper held in place with masking tape.

If you want the spatters to consist of several colors, wait until each color has dried before going ahead to the next one. You may want the spots of the first color to be large and those of the second to be small, so vary the height accordingly.

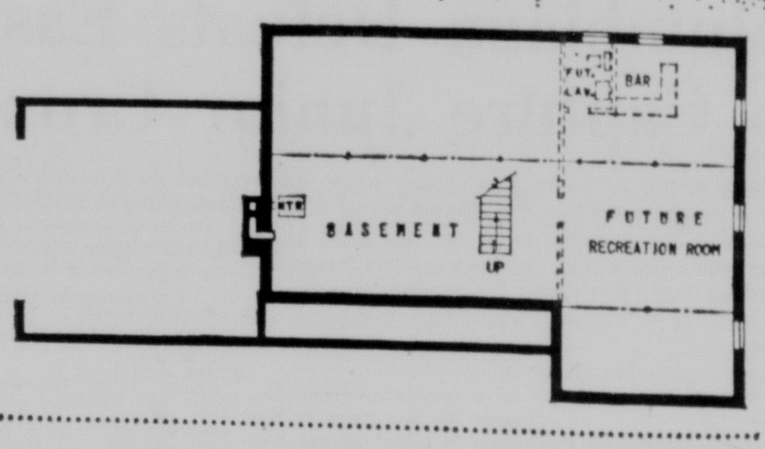
If it is necessary to enamel the entire floor because it is unpainted or in poor condition, here's the way to go about it after making sure that it is completely clean.

Where the paint has worn away, sand the surrounding edges so that the spot priming will not raise the level of the finish. Then apply the enamel to these bare spots thinned in accordance with label instructions. Thin the enamel the same way if you are doing the entire floor. After the first coat has dried, apply one or two coats of the chosen color.

Floor enamels can be applied with brush or roller. The easiest way is to use a long - handled roller that makes it unnecessary to bend or kneel. Apply the enamel in two foot strokes running the length of the room, overlapping slightly. Be sure that you paint with a door behind you so that you don't paint yourself into a corner.



EXPANSION HOME—This expansion home, Plan HA221V, was designed by Fenick Vogel, Room 75, 117 W. 48th St., New York 36, N. Y. The second floor provides two extra bedrooms and bath, and a basement with lavatory and recreation room can be added later. Hall on the 1,380 square-foot first floor gives good circulation between areas.



Here Are Facts, Figures About Humidity Problem

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

Along about this time every year the mailbag is laden with questions about excessive moisture in the home.

For the letter-writers, as well as the thousands of silent sufferers, here are some facts and figures about the humidity problem.

Moisture condensation results when the water vapor in warm air comes in contact with a cold surface.

It is this condensation which causes paint to peel and wood to rot.

This is entirely aside from the health hazards of a continually damp living area. The most visible evidence of the condition is the formation of drops or streams of water on the inside of a window.

When the water vapor escapes through inside walls, it is not always apparent at first, but shows up later in such things as blister formations on outside paint surfaces.

In older houses, where there was a great leakage of air, excessive humidity was seldom a problem.

Today, with such things as insulation, storm sash, weatherstripping and other measures designed to tighten the construction of a house, the water vapor can not escape and so condenses on the inside. The situation is made worse by the multiplicity of modern appliances which give off moisture.

The principle to be remembering in attempting to correct the humidity problem is that the moisture must be permitted to escape — but not through the walls.

Where possible, this sometimes can be done merely by opening a window or two. But more often it is necessary to use exhaust fans in high-moisture areas, such as the kitchen, bathroom and laundry room.

In areas where furnaces are in operation all winter, a check should be made to determine whether there is a humidifier attached to the heating plant. If so, it should be shut off, since it is merely adding moisture to the air inside the home.

In many cases, the installation of double windows, the insulation of walls where there is none and the use of vapor barriers may be necessary.

There is no one solution to all high humidity problems. In a basement, for instance, good results usually can be obtained with the use of a dehumidifier, either the self-contained units or the simple arrangements utilizing calcium chloride.

The owners of new homes should exercise patience as well as take precautions to eliminate moisture. New plaster and concrete throw off moisture for several months.

New homes often have an excessive humidity condition for five or six months and then never have it again.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Prayers Listed For Brotherhood Week

Because this is Brotherhood Week, I am presenting a few prayers which children and adults with kind hearts might wish to say. I wrote them some time ago for a children's magazine and use them here by permission. Dear God, We thank you that you are the Father of us all and that we all are your children. We thank you that you love every person in the world, no matter where he lives, no matter what the color of his skin, no matter how he worships you.

Dr. Garry Meyers

FORGIVE US if ever a word of hate should leave our lips, or a feeling of hate should dwell in our hearts. Help each of us to respect every other person who is different from us in any way, as well as every other person who is like us. Teach all of us, we pray, to live happily together in peace.

Prayer For Everybody —
Dear God,
Bless all the people who worship you and all the people who don't.

We thank you that they live in all parts of the world.

We thank you that they don't all look alike, that some are white, some are black, some are brown and some have other color of skin, but that they all look the same to you.

—:—

WE THANK you that you are the heavenly Father of them all, that all people of the world are your children and that all are really brothers.

Please, God, teach us all to be kind to one another, and love one another and always to live in peace.

Prayer Of Thanks—
I thank you, God,
That all boys and girls
All over the world
Are friends of mine
And that I'm a friend of theirs,
And that you love all of them
Just as you love me.

My bulletins, "Graces and Prayers for Young Children" and "The Young Children" and "The Young Child and Religion," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Brown Rules Out 2 Office Seekers

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Secretary of State Ted W. Brown said today two Republican candidates —one for state treasurer and one for U.S. Senator—have been disqualified for the May primary election because of inadequate petitions.

Brown said John Hayes Ferguson of Cambridge had enough valid signatures, but they represented only 29 counties, one short of the required number.

Richard Martin of Euclid was disqualified as a candidate for U.S. Senator for lack of at least 1,000 valid signatures. He filed 1,683 names, but 696 were held invalid by election boards.

Ferguson filed signatures from 31 counties, but petitions from Jackson and Wayne counties were declared invalid. He had a total of 1,024 valid signatures on remaining petitions.

The disqualifications left three Republican candidates for U.S. Senator and five GOP aspirants for state treasurer.

A total of 68 candidates in both parties remain in the primary election races for statewide offices.

Akron Driver Killed

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Paul M. Johnston, 41, of Akron was killed early today when his automobile went out of control and crashed into a utility pole in East Akron. He was alone.

1961 'Liquor Bill' For County Averages $18.37 Per Capita

Columbiana County spent an estimated $1,748,540 on liquor in 1961, equivalent to $18.37 for every man, woman and child.

These figures were released today at Columbus by State Auditor James A. Rhodes as part of a county-by-county breakdown on Ohioans' liquor consumption.

He based the per capita figure on drink costs on Columbiana County's population of 107,829.

State Store and agency sales accounted for $1,224,714 and wholesale liquor sales hit $543,826, Rhodes said. Actual total sales were $1,748,540, but the estimated total sales of $1,981,608 are based on the usual markup in tavern sales, which purchase their alcohol wholesale through State Stores.

But Columbiana County's spending for potables still was under the statewide average of $24.49 per person, Rhodes pointed out.

In adjoining Jefferson County, total sales hit $2,077,652 for a per capita spending of $20.91. In Mahoning County, $8,654,784 was spent on drinks, breaking down to a per capita cost of $28.

Statewide, based on a population of 9,933,522, the per capita consumption of liquor averaged out to 8.75 pints, a decline of over a pint from the average of 9.29 pints shown in the preceding year.

The total liquor bill in the state was $243,324,584. The state collected taxes on 10,995,203 gallons in 1960 and 10,873,134 gallons in 1961.

Cuyahoga County's population spent over $71 million on liquor in 1961, which works out to a per capital cost of $42.59. The smallest per capita expenditure was $5.09, reported in Holmes County.

Four dry counties have no retail liquor outlet — at least no legal outlet. They are Adams, Harrison, Morrow and Vinton.

$32,948 Due County

LISBON — Columbiana County will receive $32,948 for poor relief purposes in a statewide distribution of $7 million in utilities excise taxes, State Auditor James A. Rhodes said today at Columbus. It's the final distribution of the revenue from the 1.65 per cent tax collected in 1961.

Fire Hits Akron Firm

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A two-alarm fire at the Carlton Hardware & Supply Co. early today was brought under control within 30 minutes. The damage was confined mainly to the basement of the building. Cause of the fire was not determined, and no estimate of the damage was available immediately.

A. W. Marion Taken, Noted Ohio Farm Aide

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A Memorial service will be held Thursday at Groveport Presbyterian Church for A. W. (Chic) Marion, a former state director of agriculture and Ohio's first director of the Department of Natural Resources.

Marion died of a heart attack Saturday at the age of 58. He was a native of Pickaway County and a graduate of Ohio State University. He died at his home in nearby Canal Winchester.

A former Mercer County farmer, Marion devoted 17 years to the Agriculture Extension Service. He also served on the State Farmers Home Administration Committee, was chairman of the Ohio St. Lawrence Seaway Committee and was director of the Ohio Shorthorn Breeders Association.

Extra fancy: cover chocolate brownies with a butter cream frosting (vanilla or chocolate flavored) to which peppermint extract is added.

If you wish to add walnuts to a salad and don't want the nuts to discolor the other foods, cover walnut halves with water and boil about three minutes. Drain the nuts and peel off the thin skins.

Maintenance Minimized By Spatter Floor Finish

NEW YORK — Every housewife dreams of a colorful floor that does not show dirt, scuff marks, spilled foods and beverages, and which requires a minimum of maintenance.

Spatter finishes, sometimes called spatter-dash, provide an easy way to fulfill this dream.

This finish consists of a coat of tough quality floor enamel in the color of your choice, which is spattered at random with one or more other colors of this durable finish.

If your present painted floor is in good condition, and the colors bright and true, there is no need to repaint. But be sure that it is free of dirt, wax, polish and grease. Mop it clean and let it dry before proceeding.

If the floor has not been painted previously or if the old paint is in poor condition, then apply floor enamel in the manner to be described later on.

To get the spatters, here's what you do. Dip a brush in a can of the first color you want for the polka dot effect. Holding the brush in your right hand with the bristle pointed up, strike the metal band that holds the bristles — the technical name is ferrule — against a stick held in the other hand.

For small spatters, the brush should not be fully loaded and the stick against which it is struck should be held about a foot from the floor. For larger spatters, fill the brush fully and hold the stick three feet or so above the floor.

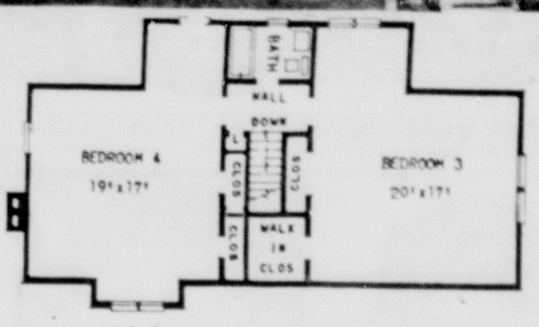
Be sure to protect the walls and baseboard with newspaper held in place with masking tape.

If you want the spatters to consist of several colors, wait until each color has dried before going ahead to the next one. You may want the spots of the first color to be large and those of the second to be small, so vary the height accordingly.

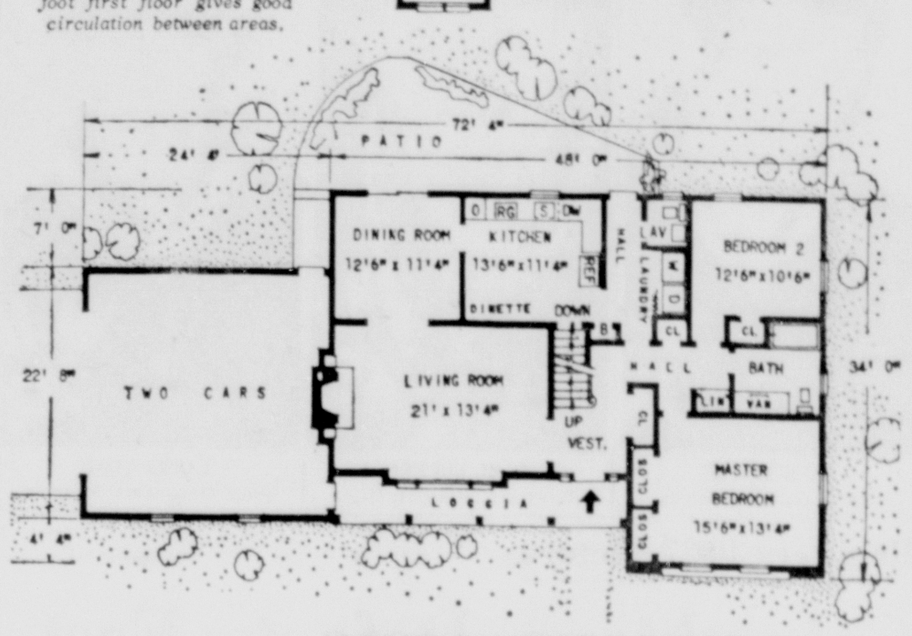
If it is necessary to enamel the entire floor because it is unpainted or in poor condition, here's the way to go about it after making sure that it is completely clean.

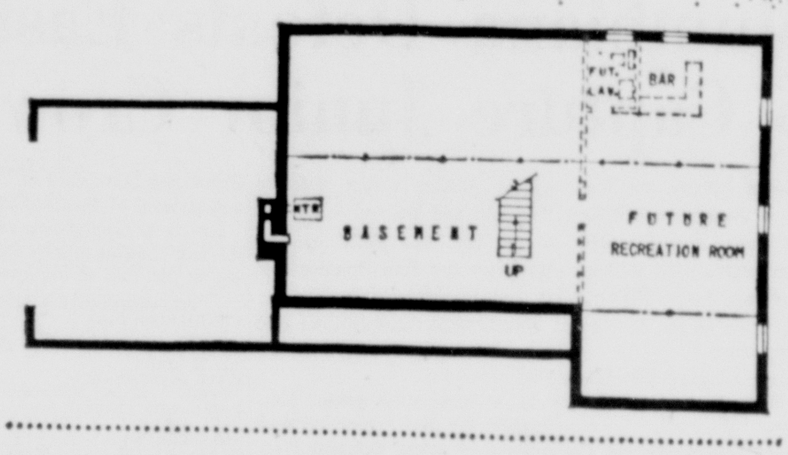
Where the paint has worn away, sand the surrounding edges so that the spot priming will not raise the level of the finish. Then apply the enamel to these bare spots thinned in accordance with label instructions. Thin the enamel the same way if you are doing the entire floor. After the first coat has dried, apply one or two coats of the chosen color.

Floor enamels can be applied with brush or roller. The easiest way is to use a long - handled roller that makes it unnecessary to bend or kneel. Apply the enamel in two foot strokes running the length of the room, overlapping slightly. Be sure that you paint with a door behind you so that you don't paint yourself into a corner.



EXPANSION HOME—This expansion home, Plan HA221V, was designed by Fenick Vogel, Room 75, 117 W. 48th St., New York 36, N. Y. The second floor provides two extra bedrooms and bath, and a basement with lavatory and recreation room can be added later. Hall on the 1,380 square-foot first floor gives good circulation between areas.





Here Are Facts, Figures About Humidity Problem

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

Along about this time every year the mailbag is laden with questions about excessive moisture in the home.

For the letter-writers, as well as the thousands of silent sufferers, here are some facts and figures about the humidity problem.

Moisture condensation results when the water vapor in warm air comes in contact with a cold surface.

It is this condensation which causes paint to peel and wood to rot.

This is entirely aside from the health hazards of a continually damp living area. The most visible evidence of the condition is the formation of drops or streams of water on the inside of a window.

When the water vapor escapes through inside walls, it is not always apparent at first, but shows up later in such things as blister formations on outside paint surfaces.

In older houses, where there was a great leakage of air, excessive humidity was seldom a problem.

Today, with such things as insulation, storm sash, weatherstripping and other measures designed to tighten the construction of a house, the water vapor can not escape and so condenses on the inside. The situation is made worse by the multiplicity of modern appliances which give off moisture.

The principle to be remembering in attempting to correct the humidity problem is that the moisture must be permitted to escape — but not through the walls.

Where possible, this sometimes can be done merely by opening a window or two. But more often it is necessary to use exhaust fans in high-moisture areas, such as the kitchen, bathroom and laundry room.

In areas where furnaces are in operation all winter, a check should be made to determine whether there is a humidifier attached to the heating plant. If so, it should be shut off, since it is merely adding moisture to the air inside the home.

In many cases, the installation of double windows, the insulation of walls where there is none and the use of vapor barriers may be necessary.

There is no one solution to all high humidity problems. In a basement, for instance, good results usually can be obtained with the use of a dehumidifier, either the self-contained units or the simple arrangements utilizing calcium chloride.

The owners of new homes should exercise patience as well as take precautions to eliminate moisture. New plaster and concrete throw off moisture for several months.

New homes often have an excessive humidity condition for five or six months and then never have it again.

Potters Draw Big Red, Tigers Meet Toronto In Sectional

Play Opens On Monday At Big Red

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

East Liverpool and Steubenville Big Red have a date next Monday, Feb. 26, in the Sectional Class AA tournament at Big Red gym.

Coach Jim Harris came up with Big Red at the drawings held Sunday afternoon in Steubenville.

The other pairing finds Wintersville meeting Jefferson Union. Top-seeded Steubenville Central grabbed the bye and slips into the semi-finals.

Coach Francis Sebring's Crusaders have an 11-2 mark against Class AA opponents and will meet the winner of the Toronto-Wellsville game March 1.

The ELHS-Big Red game will be the second of a doubleheader and will get under way about 8:30 following the Wintersville - Jefferson Union tilt, which starts at 7.

Only one game will be played Tuesday, between Toronto and Wellsville, with game time 8 p. m.

The Big Red-Potter winner and the survivor of the Wintersville-Jefferson Union battle will meet Wednesday at 8.

No games will be played Friday. The championship tilt will be Saturday at 8.

Only one team will advance to District play to be held at Martins Ferry the following week.

The Potters and Big Red haven't met on the hardwood in two years. The last meeting was the first game of the 1959-60 tournament at Wellsville when Big Red eliminated East Liverpool in a close contest. That was Harris' first year here.

Only the two Steubenville teams show winning records from the list of seven quints — Central 11-2 and Big Red 10-6. Others include Wellsville (8-9), Toronto (6-7), East Liverpool (6-9), Jefferson Union (1-2) and Wintersville (2-10).

Jefferson Union has played only three Class AA opponents, but shows a 5-13 record overall.

The drawings were conducted by Ray Hoyman, atheletic director at Steubenville Big Red.

Tickets for the Potter-Big Red game and the Wellsville-Toronto tilt will be on sale later this week.

They will be $1. The Big Red gym seats 1,163.

County's Due $20,00 From State Gas Taxes

Columbiana County is due to receive $20,000 as its share in the February distribution of gasoline tax revenues totalling $5,952,944, State Auditor James A. Rhodes said today at Columbus.

Each township will receive $800, the auditor said. The 88 counties in the state shared $1,760,000 at the rate of $20,000 per county. The total distribution to townships hit $1,061,000.

The current distribution brings to $8,243,744 the gas tax revenue forwarded to local subdivisions during the current calendar year, the auditor said.

Hoppel, Yost, Stacey Capture Mat Titles

Beaver Local Grapplers Second In District Meet

Carl Hoppel, Larry Yost and Dave Stacey — a surprise winner — captured titles and led Beaver Local into the runnerup spot of the District mat tournament Saturday at Kent State University.

Beaver Local, which captured the crown a year ago, finished with 49 points, while Canton McKinley scored 48 to succeed the Beavers as titleholders.

The majority of Coach Jack O'Rourke's wrestlers lost in the preliminary matches, but the trio of Hoppel, Yost and Stacey went all the way for championships.

O'Rourke couldn't say enough about Stacey. "He has the greatest heart and desire of any wrestler I have ever seen.

"Stacey stole the hearts of the fans. He spotted his opponents 10 pounds because he moved up from his regular 154-pound class to 165 pounds. He beat some real tough boys. I don't know how he did it. It was mainly on sheer desire."

Stacey gained four straight decisions to reach the finals. Behind 2-1 in the second period, he pinned Canton McKinley's Hall in 3:40 to record his great triumph and cap a long, gallant climb to a wrestling championship.

Hoppel and Yost were both top seeded in their divisions and ripped right through five opponents to annex crowns.

Hoppel won his third straight district title after decisioning Johnson of Barberton, 4-0. He recorded two pins and a pair of decisions on his way to the top.

The amazing Hoppel now has an incredible record of 95 wins against only two defeats, including two state championships.

Yost, who was undefeated this season for the Beavers, was not scored upon at the district meet.

He shut out five straight foes to win his title. In the finals, Yost decisioned Kruse of Southeast, 2-0. The victory was his 20th of the season.

Hoppel, Yost and Stacey will advance to the state tournament at Columbus March 2 and 3.

Beaver Local, as a team, was 15th going into the semi-finals, but the three championships vaulted the Beavers into second place.

Potters Fail To Qualify For State Mat Tourney

East Liverpool failed to qualify any wrestlers for the state tournament.

East Liverpool's Joe Jackson and Allen Douglas came close as they both fought their way into the finals. Jackson lost a heartbreaker when he was defeated in an overtime match 2-0 by Bert Williams of Steubenville in the 133-pound class.

Both wrestlers battled to a 0-0 tie at the end of the regulation time and went into overtime where Williams nailed down the decision.

Douglas pinned his first opponent, decisioned Fortney of Bridgeport in the semi - finals but lost on a referee's decision in the 145-pound match.

Martins Ferry successfully defended its district title by scoring 117 points. Steubenville was second with 85, Bridgeport 49 and East Liverpool 44. Twelve teams competed in the tourney.

Big Red qualified six wrestlers for the state meet with Bridgeport showing five. These two schools were the only teams to qualify wrestlers for the state tourney.

Butch Griffith (138) and Buth Mathias (154) of East Liverpool finished in third place after capturing consolation matches.

Sugar Ray About Washed Up After Pounding From Moyer

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—At 22, baby-faced Denny Moyer is hopeful of getting a title fight with NBA middleweight champion Gene Fullmer in April. At 41, Sugar Ray Robinson, once the greatest fighter in the ring, is all washed up, even if he won't admit it.

Promoter Norm Rothschild of Syracuse, N.Y., who helps promote fights involving Fullmer, said there was a possibility of a Moyer-Fullmer title scrap in April.

"It would go great out West," said Rothschild, an associate of Fullmer's manager, Marv Jenson. "There are three places in Montana—Bozeman, Missoula and Billings—and Las Vegas and Denver, which would like the fight."

Moyer, of Portland, Ore., squared accounts with Robinson by belting him freely en route to a one-sided victory in their television 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden Saturday night. Robinson won a close, unpopular decision over Moyer last Oct. 21.

The once slick Sugar was staggered four times—in the third, fifth, ninth and 10th rounds. In the ninth his left leg buckled from a body blow and in the 10th he was a desperate man just hoping to stay up until the final bell.

The verdicts for Moyer were: referee Art Mercante 7-2-1, judge Leo Birnbaum and judge Tony Rossi, 7-3 each. The AP card had it 7-2-1.

Potters Draw Big Red, Tigers Meet Toronto In Sectional

Play Opens On Monday At Big Red

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

Coach Jim Harris came up with Big Red at the drawings held Sunday afternoon in Steubenville.

The other pairing finds Wintersville meeting Jefferson Union. Top-seeded Steubenville Central grabbed the bye and slips into the semi-finals.

Coach Francis Sebring's Crusaders have an 11-2 mark against Class AA opponents and will meet the winner of the Toronto-Wellsville game March 1.

The ELHS-Big Red game will be the second of a doubleheader and will get under way about 8:30 following the Wintersville - Jefferson Union tilt, which starts at 7.

Only one game will be played Tuesday, between Toronto and Wellsville, with game time 8 p. m.

The Big Red-Potter winner and the survivor of the Wintersville-Jefferson Union battle will meet Wednesday at 8.

No games will be played Friday. The championship tilt will be Saturday at 8.

Only one team will advance to District play to be held at Martins Ferry the following week.

The Potters and Big Red haven't met on the hardwood in two years. The last meeting was the first game of the 1959-60 tournament at Wellsville when Big Red eliminated East Liverpool in a close contest. That was Harris' first year here.

Only the two Steubenville teams show winning records from the list of seven quints — Central 11-2 and Big Red 10-6. Others include Wellsville (8-9), Toronto (6-7), East Liverpool (6-9), Jefferson Union (1-2) and Wintersville (2-10).

Jefferson Union has played only three Class AA opponents, but shows a 5-13 record overall.

The drawings were conducted by Ray Hoyman, atheletic director at Steubenville Big Red.

Tickets for the Potter-Big Red game and the Wellsville-Toronto tilt will be on sale later this week.

They will be $1. The Big Red gym seats 1,163.

Columbiana County is due to receive $20,000 as its share in the February distribution of gasoline tax revenues totalling $5,952,944, State Auditor James A. Rhodes said today at Columbus.

Each township will receive $800, the auditor said. The 88 counties in the state shared $1,760,000 at the rate of $20,000 per county. The total distribution to townships hit $1,061,000.

Hoppel, Yost, Stacey Capture Mat Titles

Beaver Local Grapplers Second In District Meet

Carl Hoppel, Larry Yost and Dave Stacey — a surprise winner — captured titles and led Beaver Local into the runnerup spot of the District mat tournament Saturday at Kent State University.

Beaver Local, which captured the crown a year ago, finished with 49 points, while Canton McKinley scored 48 to succeed the Beavers as titleholders.

The majority of Coach Jack O'Rourke's wrestlers lost in the preliminary matches, but the trio of Hoppel, Yost and Stacey went all the way for championships.

O'Rourke couldn't say enough about Stacey. "He has the greatest heart and desire of any wrestler I have ever seen.

"Stacey stole the hearts of the fans. He spotted his opponents 10 pounds because he moved up from his regular 154-pound class to 165 pounds. He beat some real tough boys. I don't know how he did it. It was mainly on sheer desire."

Stacey gained four straight decisions to reach the finals. Behind 2-1 in the second period, he pinned Canton McKinley's Hall in 3:40 to record his great triumph and cap a long, gallant climb to a wrestling championship.

Hoppel and Yost were both top seeded in their divisions and ripped right through five opponents to annex crowns.

Hoppel won his third straight district title after decisioning Johnson of Barberton, 4-0. He recorded two pins and a pair of decisions on his way to the top.

The amazing Hoppel now has an incredible record of 95 wins against only two defeats, including two state championships.

Yost, who was undefeated this season for the Beavers, was not scored upon at the district meet.

He shut out five straight foes to win his title. In the finals, Yost decisioned Kruse of Southeast, 2-0. The victory was his 20th of the season.

Hoppel, Yost and Stacey will advance to the state tournament at Columbus March 2 and 3.

Beaver Local, as a team, was 15th going into the semi-finals, but the three championships vaulted the Beavers into second place.

East Liverpool failed to qualify any wrestlers for the state tournament.

East Liverpool's Joe Jackson and Allen Douglas came close as they both fought their way into the finals. Jackson lost a heartbreaker when he was defeated in an overtime match 2-0 by Bert Williams of Steubenville in the 133-pound class.

Both wrestlers battled to a 0-0 tie at the end of the regulation time and went into overtime where Williams nailed down the decision.

Douglas pinned his first opponent, decisioned Fortney of Bridgeport in the semi - finals but lost on a referee's decision in the 145-pound match.

Martins Ferry successfully defended its district title by scoring 117 points. Steubenville was second with 85, Bridgeport 49 and East Liverpool 44. Twelve teams competed in the tourney.

Big Red qualified six wrestlers for the state meet with Bridgeport showing five. These two schools were the only teams to qualify wrestlers for the state tourney.

Butch Griffith (138) and Buth Mathias (154) of East Liverpool finished in third place after capturing consolation matches.

Sugar Ray About Washed Up After Pounding From Moyer

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—At 22, baby-faced Denny Moyer is hopeful of getting a title fight with NBA middleweight champion Gene Fullmer in April. At 41, Sugar Ray Robinson, once the greatest fighter in the ring, is all washed up, even if he won't admit it.

Promoter Norm Rothschild of Syracuse, N.Y., who helps promote fights involving Fullmer, said there was a possibility of a Moyer-Fullmer title scrap in April.

"It would go great out West," said Rothschild, an associate of Fullmer's manager, Marv Jenson. "There are three places in Montana—Bozeman, Missoula and Billings—and Las Vegas and Denver, which would like the fight."

Moyer, of Portland, Ore., squared accounts with Robinson by belting him freely en route to a one-sided victory in their television 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden Saturday night. Robinson won a close, unpopular decision over Moyer last Oct. 21.

The once slick Sugar was staggered four times—in the third, fifth, ninth and 10th rounds. In the ninth his left leg buckled from a body blow and in the 10th he was a desperate man just hoping to stay up until the final bell.

The verdicts for Moyer were: referee Art Mercante 7-2-1, judge Leo Birnbaum and judge Tony Rossi, 7-3 each. The AP card had it 7-2-1.

Gun-Owners Warned As Man Draws Fine

The chief said anyone caught firing a gun will be prosecuted. He said this also includes air rifles, as he received more complaints last week from residents who said windows of their homes were broken by pellets from B-B guns.

Richard Dale Forbes of Salineville was fined $25 and costs Friday night by Mayor Stanley Fitch for discharging a gun within the limits.

He was arrested last Monday on E. Main St. while shooting at snowballs with a 16-gauge shotgun. Mellott said he fired the gun twice.

The annual mad scramble between the NCAA and the NIT to fill 22 spots in their post-season basketball tournaments gets under way today. The two tournaments have an armed truce that prohibited them from sending out bids earlier.

The NCAA will select 10 teams for its at-large group to complement the 15 league champions that go into the tournament which starts next month and culminates in the championship game in Louisville on March 24.

The NIT, held in New York's Madison Square Garden, plucks out 12 teams that are not committed to the NCAA. Each year the going has been getting tougher for the NIT.

Virtually none of the candidates for either at-large berths in the NCAA or the NIT has spectacular records. They show a minimum of two defeats and range all the way up to nine setbacks.

Among the major teams that could be tapped for either tournament are Houston (18-5), St. Bonaventure (13-6), Boston College (12-5), New York U. (13-3), Villanova (16-5), Duquesne (16-5), Holy Cross (16-3), Dayton (15-6), De Paul (11-8), Loyola of Chicago (16-2), Memphis State (15-5), Louisville (10-9), Oregon State (17-3), and St. John's (14-4).

The NIT can pick off the runner-up or leading challenger in four of the major conferences—the Missouri Valley, Middle Atlantic, Skyline and Border.

The Missouri Valley presents an intriguing situation whereby the NIT probably is hoping that Cincinnati finishes second best. The Bearcats whipped Ohio State in the final of the NCAA tournament last year.

Tonight, Cincinnati, which has been having its troubles in its own back yard, faces Bradley in a league game and needs a victory to pull into a tie for the lead.

The Bearcats are heavily favored, mainly because Joe Strawder, Bradley's 6-foot-8 pivotman, has been dismissed from school.

The two teams are bound to finish 1-2 in the Missouri Valley, though, so it probably will be the NCAA for one and the NIT for the other. Ohio State (20-0), has all but nailed down the Big Ten title and would dearly love to get another crack at Cincinnati in the NCAA.

Two teams already have made the NCAA tournament. They're nailed down the Mid-American Conference crown by defeating Ohio University, 83-58, Saturday, and Border Conference titlist Arizona State (19-3).

Here is how the other major conferences stand:

Big Eight—Colorado (9-0) leads but has a big date with Kansas State (8-1), on March 3. That probably will decide the champion.

Southwest — Southern Methodist, Texas Tech and Texas A&M deadlocked for lead, each with a 7-3 record.

Big Five—UCLA out front with 6-1 conference record. Stanford second with 5-3.

Ivy League—Between Yale 9-1 and Cornell (8-2). They meet Friday. Yale whipped Cornell last week. The Ivy champion is not obligated to go to the NCAA tournament but usually does.

Southeastern—Mississippi State (9-1) and Kentucky (8-1) head the field. State has four games to go, Kentucky five, so it could go either way. They don't meet again. (Mississippi State will not play in NCAA if it wins).

Skyline—Utah (9-1) and Utah State (9-1) tied. Utah is in the bad graces of the NCAA and can't play in postseason tournaments. Colorado State U. (9-2), still in running.

Ohio Valley — Western Kentucky (8-1) far in front.

West Coast — Pepperdine (7-1) and St. Mary's (5-1) lead the pack. They clash Thursday and that probably will determine the league winner.

Yankee — Massachusetts (7-2) leader, but barely staying ahead of Rhode Island (6-2) and Connecticut (5-2). Massachusetts has only last-place New Hampshire left, though, and should win it.

Southern —West Virginia (11-1) the top team in league, but must win postseason tournament to qualify for NCAA.

Atlantic Coast Conference — Wake Forest (10-2) leads, but must play second-place North Carolina State (10-3) Wednesday. Like Southern Conference, NCAA representative is determined by postseason tournament.

Plane Delayed By Bomb 'Joke'

CHARLESTON (AP) — A Lake Central Airlines plane was delayed for one hour at Kanawha Airport Sunday while police combed every nook and cranny of the craft for a bomb.

State Police Cpl. H. E. Parks said it all started when a young woman remarked to a fellow employe at the airport that there was a bomb in a passenger's luggage. Parks said that although his investigation indicated the remark was "an idle jest," police were called and the craft was isolated for an intensive bomb hunt.

No bomb was found, and the plane proceeded at 5:10 p.m. — one hour late — for Clarksburg, Morgantown, Elkins, Martinsburg, Washington and Baltimore.

The FBI said that although the woman's statement constitutes a violation of federal law, she was not charged, but the case was referred to Washington for further action, if any.

Death Takes Harlow, Noted Ex-Grid Coach

BETHESDA, Md. (AP) — Dick Harlow, a topnotch coach of college football teams for 36 years, died early today—apparently of a heart attack—at Bethesda Naval Hospital where he has been a patient for several weeks. He was 72.

Harlow started coaching football at his alma mater the year after he was graduated from Penn State. He then coached successively at Colgate, Western Maryland and Harvard.

He was voted Coach of the Year in 1936 and was elected to the Football Hall of Fame in 1954.

Mrs. K Appeals To U.S. Women On Disarmament

NEW YORK (AP) — Speaking English that came through clearly, Nina Khrushchev appealed in a special broadcast to American women for international understanding and complete disarmament.

The Soviet premier's wife, whose words were easily understandable despite her accent, called on Americans Sunday night to lay down their arms and be friends with the Soviet Union.

"War must not be allowed to break out," she said in her 10-minute broadcast beamed by Moscow radio at 2:30 a.m. Monday, Moscow time. "This can be done through general disarmament under strict international control."

Mrs. Khrushchev said she was replying to American women who had written expressing their concern about the danger of war, especially a nuclear conflict.

Echoing her husband's line, she said governments should dump "all weapons into the ocean."

She also echoed the Soviet premier's call for opening the 18-nation disarmament conference in Geneva March 14 at the summit level.

100 Sailors Start 3rd Day's Test Of Nuclear Shelter

WASHINGTON (AP) — A hundred Navy men whiled away the time as best they could in cramped underground quarters today on the third day of a two-week test to determine what happens to people in a long stay in a nuclear fallout shelter.

The test group — two officers and 98 enlisted men including two medical corpsmen—went underground Saturday in a $70,000 shelter of concrete, steel and wood in a hillside on the grounds of the naval medical center in suburban Bethesda, Md. The 25-by-48 foot structure gives each man about a tenth of the space allotted each man on a submarine.

There is plenty of food—of a rather monotonous survival-only sort — plus games and reading material. But there is no outside communication except a radio receiver, and there are no major jobs to keep minds occupied.

Minow Asks Bar Group To Revise Ban On Pictures

CHICAGO (AP)—The American Bar Association has been urged to relax its ban and allow individual judges to determine whether photographers and broadcasters may cover courtrooms during a trial.

The chairman of the Federal Communications Commission and representatives of radio, television and press joined Sunday in urging revision of Canon 35, a 25-year-old rule of judicial ethics.

They told a special ABA committee that still and TV cameras and radio microphones should be allowed in courtrooms if the presiding judge permits.

Newton Minow, FCC chairman, said in a letter to the committee: "It should be for the trial judge to decide whether and under what circumstances and safeguards proceedings in his court might appropriately be reported by radio or television."

Boone Wasn't Burley

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Do you picture Daniel Boone as a big, burley, rough-looking man? Not so says George Chinn, director of the Kentucky Historial Society. Chinn says Boone was a lean, wiry man who stood about 5-foot-10 and would have looked good in an Ivy League suit.

Associated Press Sports Writer

The annual mad scramble between the NCAA and the NIT to fill 22 spots in their post-season basketball tournaments gets under way today. The two tournaments have an armed truce that prohibited them from sending out bids earlier.

The NCAA will select 10 teams for its at-large group to complement the 15 league champions that go into the tournament which starts next month and culminates in the championship game in Louisville on March 24.

The NIT, held in New York's Madison Square Garden, plucks out 12 teams that are not committed to the NCAA. Each year the going has been getting tougher for the NIT.

Virtually none of the candidates for either at-large berths in the NCAA or the NIT has spectacular records. They show a minimum of two defeats and range all the way up to nine setbacks.

Among the major teams that could be tapped for either tournament are Houston (18-5), St. Bonaventure (13-6), Boston College (12-5), New York U. (13-3), Villanova (16-5), Duquesne (16-5), Holy Cross (16-3), Dayton (15-6), De Paul (11-8), Loyola of Chicago (16-2), Memphis State (15-5), Louisville (10-9), Oregon State (17-3), and St. John's (14-4).

The NIT can pick off the runner-up or leading challenger in four of the major conferences—the Missouri Valley, Middle Atlantic, Skyline and Border.

The Missouri Valley presents an intriguing situation whereby the NIT probably is hoping that Cincinnati finishes second best. The Bearcats whipped Ohio State in the final of the NCAA tournament last year.

Tonight, Cincinnati, which has been having its troubles in its own back yard, faces Bradley in a league game and needs a victory to pull into a tie for the lead.

The Bearcats are heavily favored, mainly because Joe Strawder, Bradley's 6-foot-8 pivotman, has been dismissed from school.

The two teams are bound to finish 1-2 in the Missouri Valley, though, so it probably will be the NCAA for one and the NIT for the other. Ohio State (20-0), has all but nailed down the Big Ten title and would dearly love to get another crack at Cincinnati in the NCAA.

Two teams already have made the NCAA tournament. They're nailed down the Mid-American Conference crown by defeating Ohio University, 83-58, Saturday, and Border Conference titlist Arizona State (19-3).

Here is how the other major conferences stand:

Big Eight—Colorado (9-0) leads but has a big date with Kansas State (8-1), on March 3. That probably will decide the champion.

Southwest — Southern Methodist, Texas Tech and Texas A&M deadlocked for lead, each with a 7-3 record.

Big Five—UCLA out front with 6-1 conference record. Stanford second with 5-3.

Ivy League—Between Yale 9-1 and Cornell (8-2). They meet Friday. Yale whipped Cornell last week. The Ivy champion is not obligated to go to the NCAA tournament but usually does.

Southeastern—Mississippi State (9-1) and Kentucky (8-1) head the field. State has four games to go, Kentucky five, so it could go either way. They don't meet again. (Mississippi State will not play in NCAA if it wins).

Skyline—Utah (9-1) and Utah State (9-1) tied. Utah is in the bad graces of the NCAA and can't play in postseason tournaments. Colorado State U. (9-2), still in running.

Ohio Valley — Western Kentucky (8-1) far in front.

West Coast — Pepperdine (7-1) and St. Mary's (5-1) lead the pack. They clash Thursday and that probably will determine the league winner.

Yankee — Massachusetts (7-2) leader, but barely staying ahead of Rhode Island (6-2) and Connecticut (5-2). Massachusetts has only last-place New Hampshire left, though, and should win it.

Southern —West Virginia (11-1) the top team in league, but must win postseason tournament to qualify for NCAA.

Atlantic Coast Conference — Wake Forest (10-2) leads, but must play second-place North Carolina State (10-3) Wednesday. Like Southern Conference, NCAA representative is determined by postseason tournament.

Plane Delayed By Bomb 'Joke'

CHARLESTON (AP) — A Lake Central Airlines plane was delayed for one hour at Kanawha Airport Sunday while police combed every nook and cranny of the craft for a bomb.

State Police Cpl. H. E. Parks said it all started when a young woman remarked to a fellow employe at the airport that there was a bomb in a passenger's luggage. Parks said that although his investigation indicated the remark was "an idle jest," police were called and the craft was isolated for an intensive bomb hunt.

No bomb was found, and the plane proceeded at 5:10 p.m. — one hour late — for Clarksburg, Morgantown, Elkins, Martinsburg, Washington and Baltimore.

The FBI said that although the woman's statement constitutes a violation of federal law, she was not charged, but the case was referred to Washington for further action, if any.

Wayne Hays Departs For Talks In Bermuda

Rep. Wayne L. Hays, 18th District congressman, left today for Bermuda as chairman of a House-Senate delegation to confer with delegates from Great Britain, Canada and other commonwealth nations.

The delegates will be guests of the government of Bermuda at the conference to discuss foreign and domestic affairs. The conference will end Saturday.

Other members of the U.S. delegation are Dr. Walter Judd (R-Minn.) and Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala.)

Fall On Patio Injures Man

A city man injured in a fall about midnight Sunday is in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital, where nine other persons were treated over the weekend, including an area youth who suffered a severe arm laceration in a home mishap.

William Sanford, 66, of 1018 St. Clair Ave. was admitted to the hospital with back injuries suffered when he fell on the patio of his home.

Twenty-two stitches were required to close the wound of the upper left arm suffered by Fred Butcher, 7, when he fell against the sliding door of a shower at home last night. He is the stepson of John Watson of R. D. 2.

Five others were treated yesterday. Oliver Lutton, 21, of Dewey Ave. Ext. cut the middle finger of his right hand on a rusty nail while working at the American Vitrified Products Co. plant.

Barbara McCune, 4, daughter of Charles McCune, 1751 Main St, Wellsville, suffered a laceration of the chin when she fell on ice.

William Collins, 6, son of Glenn Collins, 1715 Anderson Blvd., suffered a laceration of the scalp when he fell and struck his head on a rock.

John Tarnovich, 5, son of Nick Tarnovich, 610 5th St., Wellsville, cut his right knee when he fell on a rock.

John Kerns, 11, son of Mrs. Sarah Kerns of Negley R. D. 1, cut the palm of his left hand in a fall on ice.

Three were treated Saturday. Roger Morrow, 7, son of Donald Morrow, 931 Cedar Ave., Wellsville, cut his right leg in a fall on a piece of glass.

Peter Johnson, 5, son of William Johnson of Dresden Ave., cut his left hand on a key at home.

Harvey Larkins, 36, of 657 Walnut St. suffered contusions of the third and fourth fingers when his car ran over his left hand as he was putting sand under the wheel. He said the vehicle was stuck in the snow.

Kennedy Selects Writer As Envoy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has announced he will name free lance writer John Bartlow Martin ambassador to the Dominican Republic.

Martin, of Highland Park, Ill., has been a reporter and writer for 25 years. He served on the speech writing staffs of Kennedy in the 1960 presidential campaign and Democratic presidential nominee Adlai Stevenson in 1952 and 1956.

He will be the first U.S. envoy to the Dominican Republic since the United States resumed diplomatic relations with that nation earlier this year after a lapse of more than a year.

Martin, born in Hamilton, Ohio, Aug. 4, 1915, began his reporting career for the Indianapolis Times in 1937.

County To Lower Road Load Limit

LISBON — Commissioners today are expected to authorize a reduction in load limits on a number of county roads to protect against damage by thawing of frost.

Charles Snyder, county engineer, said the limits will be cut 25 per cent and it will remain in effect until spring. The county highway department crews will begin posting roads Tuesday and the new limits will become effective Wednesday on these roads:

No. 401, Homeworth-Alliance Rd.; 409, Goshen Rd.; 439, Pigeon Rd.; 414, Franklin Square Rd.; 420, Columbiana-Middleton Rd.; 421, Columbiana - Middleton Rd. through New Waterford to Route 14; 437, State Route 14 east to the state line.

432, State Route 558 to Negley; 428, Rogers - Clarkson Rd.; 430, Cannons Mills southeast to state line; 418, Wellsville - Salineville Rd.; 407, State Route 518 to Route 30 Dungannon Rd.; 407-A, Shirk Rd.; 406, Hanoverton Rd. to Carroll County line, and 412, County Home Rd. between Routes 30 and 172.

Death Takes Harlow, Noted Ex-Grid Coach

BETHESDA, Md. (AP) — Dick Harlow, a topnotch coach of college football teams for 36 years, died early today—apparently of a heart attack—at Bethesda Naval Hospital where he has been a patient for several weeks. He was 72.

Harlow started coaching football at his alma mater the year after he was graduated from Penn State. He then coached successively at Colgate, Western Maryland and Harvard.

He was voted Coach of the Year in 1936 and was elected to the Football Hall of Fame in 1954.

Mrs. K Appeals To U.S. Women On Disarmament

NEW YORK (AP) — Speaking English that came through clearly, Nina Khrushchev appealed in a special broadcast to American women for international understanding and complete disarmament.

The Soviet premier's wife, whose words were easily understandable despite her accent, called on Americans Sunday night to lay down their arms and be friends with the Soviet Union.

"War must not be allowed to break out," she said in her 10-minute broadcast beamed by Moscow radio at 2:30 a.m. Monday, Moscow time. "This can be done through general disarmament under strict international control."

Mrs. Khrushchev said she was replying to American women who had written expressing their concern about the danger of war, especially a nuclear conflict.

Echoing her husband's line, she said governments should dump "all weapons into the ocean."

She also echoed the Soviet premier's call for opening the 18-nation disarmament conference in Geneva March 14 at the summit level.

100 Sailors Start 3rd Day's Test Of Nuclear Shelter

WASHINGTON (AP) — A hundred Navy men whiled away the time as best they could in cramped underground quarters today on the third day of a two-week test to determine what happens to people in a long stay in a nuclear fallout shelter.

The test group — two officers and 98 enlisted men including two medical corpsmen—went underground Saturday in a $70,000 shelter of concrete, steel and wood in a hillside on the grounds of the naval medical center in suburban Bethesda, Md. The 25-by-48 foot structure gives each man about a tenth of the space allotted each man on a submarine.

There is plenty of food—of a rather monotonous survival-only sort — plus games and reading material. But there is no outside communication except a radio receiver, and there are no major jobs to keep minds occupied.

Minow Asks Bar Group To Revise Ban On Pictures

CHICAGO (AP)—The American Bar Association has been urged to relax its ban and allow individual judges to determine whether photographers and broadcasters may cover courtrooms during a trial.

The chairman of the Federal Communications Commission and representatives of radio, television and press joined Sunday in urging revision of Canon 35, a 25-year-old rule of judicial ethics.

They told a special ABA committee that still and TV cameras and radio microphones should be allowed in courtrooms if the presiding judge permits.

Newton Minow, FCC chairman, said in a letter to the committee: "It should be for the trial judge to decide whether and under what circumstances and safeguards proceedings in his court might appropriately be reported by radio or television."

Boone Wasn't Burley

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Do you picture Daniel Boone as a big, burley, rough-looking man? Not so says George Chinn, director of the Kentucky Historial Society. Chinn says Boone was a lean, wiry man who stood about 5-foot-10 and would have looked good in an Ivy League suit.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

BENNETT, Roy E. In memory of our dear Daddy, who passed away 14 years ago, Feb. 19, 1948. Gone to the light that shines so fair. Gone from the earth of sorrow and care. Resting those hands that did their best. Gone, dear Daddy gone to rest. Forgotten to the world by some maybe, but dear in our memory you always will be. Your cheery smile and kindly ways are pleasant to recall. You had a kind word for everyone and died beloved by all. Daughter and son, Elva and Lewis Bennett.

Jean LeMasters—In loving memory of my sister who passed away Feb. 19, 1960.
Memories are keepsakes, no one can steal. Death leaves a heartache that no one can heal; Some may forget—now that you're gone. But we remember, no matter how long.
Sadly missed by her sister, Mrs. Lawrence Bickel and family.

DICK TRACY

STEVE CANYON

SECRET AGENT

OFF THE RECORD

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I clean pearl and amber beads?

A. Rub some olive oil on these beads with a piece of flannel or a chamois, being sure, however, to go easy on the amount of oil and the pressure of your rubbing.

Q. How can I prevent rust in my window screens?

A. Periodic paintings of the screen with linseed oil will preserve them from rust and make them look like new.

Q. How can I make a brush for velvet?

A. By making a padded cushion of velvet about five inches long and three inches wide, inserting a piece of cardboard to stiffen it, and then stuffing with cotton. A strip of tape can be sewed on to serve as a handle.

Q. Is there anything I can do when some of my youngsters' shoes have become too badly scuffed to take a good polish?

A. Try rubbing them with a piece of raw potato, then applying your polish. This usually makes them shine like new.

Q. How can I repair the cloth on the cushions of my pool table, which has become torn?

A. You can repair it with some adhesive tape so that the latter does not show. First, cut the tape to size, then work it under the tear in the cloth with the adhesive towards the cloth. Next, carefully pull the torn edges of the cloth together, then press them firmly against the tape.

Q. How can I remedy a sweater that is unsightly because its pockets are stretched and sagging?

A. Sew a strip of elastic inside the top of the pockets and tack the wool to it in a few places. It will draw the pocket back into position, and stop the sagging.

Q. What is a good homemade solution for cleaning painted walls?

A. Combine two ounces of borax, one teaspoon of ammonia, and two quarts of water. You'll need no soap. Apply this with a soft cloth.

QUESTION: Who wrote the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag?

ANSWER: More than a century after the flag was adopted, the editor of a youth magazine, James Bailey Upham, wrote the original pledge of allegiance. Since allegiance means loyalty, he wrote the pledge as a way for Americans to express their loyalty to their flag and, therefore, to their country. The pledge was an immediate success. It was published in 1892 in the Youth's Companion. About 30 years later, members of the National Flag Conference changed the wording of the pledge. Mr. Upham's "I pledge allegiance to my flag" was rewritten to the phrase we all repeat today, "the flag of the United States of America." Finally in 1954, Congress voted to add the word "Under God." The pledge today reads "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I clean pearl and amber beads?

A. Rub some olive oil on these beads with a piece of flannel or a chamois, being sure, however, to go easy on the amount of oil and the pressure of your rubbing.

Q. How can I prevent rust in my window screens?

A. Periodic paintings of the screen with linseed oil will preserve them from rust and make them look like new.

Q. How can I make a brush for velvet?

A. By making a padded cushion of velvet about five inches long and three inches wide, inserting a piece of cardboard to stiffen it, and then stuffing with cotton. A strip of tape can be sewed on to serve as a handle.

Q. Is there anything I can do when some of my youngsters' shoes have become too badly scuffed to take a good polish?

A. Try rubbing them with a piece of raw potato, then applying your polish. This usually makes them shine like new.

Q. How can I repair the cloth on the cushions of my pool table, which has become torn?

A. You can repair it with some adhesive tape so that the latter does not show. First, cut the tape to size, then work it under the tear in the cloth with the adhesive towards the cloth. Next, carefully pull the torn edges of the cloth together, then press them firmly against the tape.

Q. How can I remedy a sweater that is unsightly because its pockets are stretched and sagging?

A. Sew a strip of elastic inside the top of the pockets and tack the wool to it in a few places. It will draw the pocket back into position, and stop the sagging.

Q. What is a good homemade solution for cleaning painted walls?

A. Combine two ounces of borax, one teaspoon of ammonia, and two quarts of water. You'll need no soap. Apply this with a soft cloth.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I did a terrible thing five weeks ago and can't get it off my mind. I've lost 17 pounds and I'm a nervous wreck.

I'm 38, happily married and the mother of three children. Money always has been scarce and I wanted desperately to have a new dress for a party. I couldn't afford anything in silk so I went to a department store to look at some inexpensive cottons. I tried on a cute one at $6.98 and it was a perfect fit.

Unconsciously I put my coat on over the new dress and began to walk out. Suddenly I realized what I was doing. But it seemed too easy, so I kept walking, knowing my old dress was on the hanger.

A house detective stopped me just outside the door. All I could do was cry. Since I had never done anything like this before they let me go.

Now I'm so ashamed I can't sleep at night. My religion always has been important to me but now I avoid going to church because of the confessional. How can I get this off my conscience? — PEGGY.

Dear Peggy: Since confession is part of your religion, start there — and you'll feel better.

Nothing is so futile (and energy consuming) as torturing yourself over what happened yesterday. Learn from your mistake and then put it out of your mind. The authorities were extremely generous and you have much to be grateful for.

Same Old Story

Dear Ann: Am I old-fashioned or just nuts? What has happened to those twin virtues, "dependability" and "consideration"?

Friends and business associates break dates at the last minute with the lamest excuses you ever heard. Often I've sat staring at my wrist watch (even shaking it occasionally) for 25 or 30 minutes. The offending party waltzes in unconcerned without a word of apology.

People promise to phone and then they proceed to forget it. They offer to drop something in the mail and it never arrives. I know precious few individuals whose word means anything.

Is this part of our declining society — a symptom of the moral decay that philosophers are concerned about? Or did people behave this way 100 years ago? — JAUNDICED EYE.

Dear Jaundiced: It was ever thus. The human animal has changed little since Abraham Lincoln's time. The reason you didn't notice it 100 years ago is because you weren't around.

Ironically, however, busy people are the most dependable. The goof-offs who do the least invariably keep the busy ones waiting.

Synthetic Diamond

Dear Ann: Please print your answer soon so I will know what to do.

I'm 19 and my fiance is 21. He gave me a ring for Christmas and we plan to be married in June. The ring was very sparkly and bright for about three weeks. Now it is losing its luster and turning cloudy. My cousin who is in the jewelry business told me last night the stone is not a real diamond.

I love this boy and I don't want to hurt his feelings. Should I keep quiet or not? — FAKED OUT.

Dear Faked: By all means tell your boy friend. Make it plain that the value of the ring means nothing to you. He should be clued in, however, because if he paid for a diamond and got a hunk of pop bottle glass he has some settling to do with the jewelry store.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Winter Aims At Northeast

By The Associated Press

Crippling wind-blown snow and sleet storms which battered the Midwest over the weekend, leaving a blanket of up to two feet of snow and sheets of ice, blustered into the Northeast today.

Effects of the damaging weather in the eight-state storm belt from the Dakotas to Michigan were widespread. Some areas were virtually paralyzed.

Thirty-one inches of snow covered Sioux Falls, S.D., as the heaviest snow of the season swept eastern South Dakota and southwestern Minnesota.

The storms spread into areas in North Dakota, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois and Michigan. They moved into northern Indiana and Ohio and headed northeastward, with heavy snowfall indicated in the northeastern upper lakes to Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

The violent wintry weather which whipped across the nation's midlands from the Rockies created monumental traffic jams. Thousands of motorists were temporarily stranded as strong winds whipped the snow into high drifts on highways and streets.

Traffic was sharply curtailed. Many schools called off classes today. Church services were cancelled in many areas Sunday.

Hundreds of secondary roads were blocked. Travel in southern Minnesota was virtually halted. Many airports in Minnesota and South Dakota were closed.

In Wisconsin, up to 150 cars were stalled on a single highway in Sheboygan and Ozaukee counties.

Some 700 ice fishermen, including women and children, were trapped for several hours Sunday on Lake Poygan, near Oshkosh, Wis., as a blinding snowstorm struck the area. They were brought to safety by State Conservation Department workers and volunteers.

Colder weather moved into northern sections of the Midwest. Temperatures dropped to zero in parts of North Dakota and to the teens in other northern areas of the snow belt.
